

Methodist Church Has Busy Week

The Spiritual Life Group of the Zebulon Methodist Church is most fortunate to have Mrs. Joe Tippet as its leader and Mrs. Chas. Flowers as chairman. These meetings are very well attended. The time is to first Monday afternoon in each month at the church.

The W. S. C. S. meets the second Monday. Its April meeting was held in the home of Mrs. R. H. Bridgers with Mrs. A. R. House leader. Mrs. Paul Carruth led the devotional with Mrs. Dighton Fiddner and Mrs. Marshall Jones assisting. "Then Shall the Earth Yield Her Increase," concerning rural and small town churches, served as the theme for this program.

The Board of Stewards met with A. R. House Monday night at his house. Almost a hundred per cent were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe W. Bunn and Peggy, Mrs. N. H. Batchelor, Mr. Earl Batchelor and children, Betty Mildred, Annette, Lacy and Robert, spent the weekend in Washington, D. C., with Mrs. Batchelor's daughter, Mrs. E. C. Upchurch. They visited many interesting places, including the Washington monument, the monastery and the zoo.
