Officers Named, Study Course Held By Wakelon Parent-Teacher Group

Nearly 200 attended the April meeting of the Wakelon Parent-Teacher Association Monday night when the first of a series of two meetings of sound films were shown. The program, centered around the subject of "Health," was planned to serve as the annual study course for the group, and an animated film and a talk by Dr. Charles Flowers, Jr., on cancer highlighted the evening.

Officers for the coming year were elected by acclamation from the slate presented by the nominating committee. Heading the group will be Willie B. Hopkins, president; Mrs. Harold Pippin, vice president; Mrs. Ed Ellington, secretary; and Mrs. Herman Edins, treasurer.

The first film "Danger Within," explained cancer from its beginning in a persons body when the normal cells suddenly take on strange abnormal growth and begin devouring other cells. The film not only pictured the beginning of cancer but pled for immediate consultation of a physician whenever the danger signs of cancer appear. Some of these danger signs, the film said, are persistent sores, about the mouth and other body openings, chronic hoarseness and coughing, and prolonged and abnormal body discharges.

County Health Officer Asks for Cooperation In Anti-Rabies Drive

By A. C. Bulla, M. D.

In compliance with the law passed by the General Assembly of 1935 and amended in 1941 and 1945 requiring annual vaccination of dogs during April, May, and June of each calendar year, I have named Dr. L. F. Koonce, 420 S. Bloodworth Street, Drs. Scarborough and Dobbs, Fayetteville Rd., Dr. William Moore, Sr., Cary Road, Dr. R. L. Williams, Western Blvd., and Dr. Martin Litwack, Fuquay Springs, licensed veterinarians to hold clinics during April and May at strategic locations in various sections of Wake County for the convenience of people living in these sections that they may comply with the requirements of the law in having their dogs vaccinated. Handbills have been printed giving dates and places of these clinics and will be widely distributed throughout Wake County.

At the beginning of this campaign I wish to emphasize the importance of vaccinations and to urge dog owners of the advisability of utilizing this opportunity of having their dogs immunized against rabies and thereby building up and maintaining a relatively high degree of immunity in the dog population.

The vaccination of dogs with an approved antirabic vaccine is an accepted procedure for controlling rabies. Dog owners should recognize this fact now and not wait until there is an outbreak or threatened outbreak of rabies.

Dancing Class to Have Revue on May 18

Mrs. H. C. Wade will present her dancing class in its Spring Revue Tuesday night, May 18, in the Wakelon auditorium. This popular program played to a full house last year, and another entertaining group of dancers and dances is scheduled for this spring.

The revue is sponsored this year by the Girl and Boy Scouts, with the proceeds to go to a fund to be used in building a new building for the two organizations.

Wake Forest Players Form Nucleus of Local Team; Hoey Manager

Zebulon will have a baseball team this summer, President Pettigrew Gay of the local club announced yesterday.

Gay, who has been playing his team in the Tri-County League under the name of Gay's Store, was approached by Zebulon businessmen last season concerning the possibility of a move to the town. Last year the plan was not deemed possible, but promise of local support and gifts of cash by local merchants have brought about the shift this spring.

The team, which is made up of Wake Forest College players, is managed by Ed Hoey, and has already played two games, winning them both. This week the group will play on Saturday and Sunday, meeting the Peaces team here on Saturday afternoon and there on Sunday afternoon.

Local games will be played on the Wakelon School diamond, approval of the local school board having been received last Monday night. For the time being, at least, no admission charge will be made. Plans for bleacher seats are being made.

There are ten teams in the Tri-County League this year, several of them exceptionally strong. Peaces' team is among the leaders, carrying many State College players on its roster. Other teams in the league are Mitchell's Store, Wendell, Knightdale, Clayton, Robertson Chemical, Bethany, Archer Lodge, and Bunn-Pilot.

Local residents are invited to attend the local opener next Saturday. Game time is 2:30 p.m. President Gay emphasized the fact that there will be no admission charge.

Card fans will have an opportunity to put their skill against others in the Bridge-Rook-Setback Tournament to be held Thursday, April 29, at 8 p. m. in the Wakelon lunch room. The tournament will be sponsored by the Wakelon Parent-Teacher Association.

Nearly three dozen prizes will be awarded to contestants during and after the play, all of them donated by merchants and others in Zebulon. A complete list of the prizes is elsewhere in this issue.
