

Dickerson-Bunn Vows Are Spoken Saturday

The marriage of Miss Betty Helen Bunn, daughter of Mrs. Lucy Honeycutt Bunn and the late E. H. Bunn of Zebulon, to Glynn McCoy Dickerson, son of Mrs. Emily Dickerson and the late J. M. Dickerson of Bunn, was solemnized Saturday morning, May 15th, at 11 o'clock, in the Zebulon Baptist Church. The Reverend Carlton T. Mitchell, officiated. The altar was decorated with fern and tall baskets of white gladioli, flanked by seven-branched candelabra.

Prior to the ceremony, Charles Horton, organist, presented a program of nuptial music. Mrs. L. M. Massey was soloist.

Ushers were Harold Bunn, brother of the bride, and W. A. Allman of Zebulon; Carval C. Cheves of Bunn and Charles Theodore Cheves of Princeton, N. J.

The maid of honor, Miss Ruby Dawson of Zebulon, wore a Sacony Palm Beach suit of aqua with hat of natural straw, trimmed with yellow roses and tulle and matching gloves. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses tied with satin ribbon.

The bride and bridegroom entered together. She wore an original model suit of natural gaberdine. Her off-the-face hat of natural straw was trimmed with pink roses which matched her blouse. The white prayer book she carried was showered with purple orchids and satin ribbons.

Mrs. Bunn, mother of the bride, was attired in a green and white floral Bemberg dress with black accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Dickerson is a graduate of Wakelon High School and Hardbarger's Secretarial School. For the past three years she has held a position with the Zebulon Branch of the Peoples Bank and Trust Company. Prior to that time she was employed by the North Carolina Department of Revenue.

Mr. Dickerson was graduated from the Bunn High School and is a veteran of World War II, having served three years in the Pacific area. He is engaged in the lumber business and farming.

Immediately following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Dickerson left for a wedding trip to unannounced points. Upon their return, they will be at home in Bunn, N. C.

We are very proud of our young people and the older ones that take a part in our B. Y. P. U. although I don't belong, I am with you one-hundred percent. Our B. Y. P. U. went and won the attendance banner last week for the third successive year, and for keeps this time, so if you want to see it — just come to our church and it's here for you to see.

In faith and hope the world will disagree. But all mankind's concern is charity. All must be false that thwarts this one great end.

And all of God that bless mankind or mind.
