

WAKEFIELD

I think everyone is through barning tobacco now. We finished last Saturday and have it all worked and ready for market but what is in the barn curing now. Can you beat that? If you can, just let me know about it. I also sold some 1947 tobacco on the opening sale day. The rush is still on.

The Garland Faulkners are working day and night getting some ready for sale. It's a pleasure to me. I just love to shuffle out 20 sticks a day and go sell it, too. And then go fishing to celebrate. All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy and it makes me a dull gal too.

We are sorry to report Mrs. Mamie Kinbell is in Rex Hospital for an operation Thursday. We hope and pray she will be OK soon. We will miss her greatly while she is gone.

We are so glad her son, Smitty, has got home out of service. He has been gone so long.

Mr. T. Y. Baker is also in Rex Hospital very sick. We hope he will soon be well again.

Mr. Sidney Friedman is much improved. I see him walking about with his little girl.

Little Wayne Price has got to go back soon for a checkover. We sincerely hope they won't find anything bad.

were dinner guests of the H. A. Hodges Sunday night.

Mrs. Vera Rhodes, Mrs. J. R. Bolton, and Mr. W. S. Broughton and Mrs. Page Perry went to Mr. Forest Broughtons to see Mrs. Privett, who is seriously ill there.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wilder are visiting the R. F. Eddins a few days.

Mrs. David Elks was here for the weekend.

Miss Lois Edins was here to see her parents, the Hubert Edins.

Miss Ella V. Liles spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Spright Ferrell.

We were glad to have 57 at Sunday School Sunday, but we should have had three times that many and then some. We were glad to have Mrs. Annie Jones and Mrs. Dewey Massey at Church.

Please sit up and take notice and you will always hear all the announcements, and things of interest and won't make any blunders to embarrass you. Church at 7:30 first and third Sunday nights.

I want to thank the Davis boys for the grand and glorious time we all had at the chicken barbecue at the Legion Hut last Friday night given in our honor. It was the nicest thing I been to lately. Thanks again, boys, it was well. I wanted to ask a bachelor to take me, but I couldn't decide which one to ask so I just went on without one, but after I got there and most every woman had a man, I put on my thinking cap again but it didn't work. No kidding, it was a fine group of ladies and gentlemen, and I know by self experience that all enjoyed the occasion immensely, didn't you, folks? If you didn't, it was your own fault.
