PAGING HENRY WALLACE

Reception Held by PTA Honoring New Teachers

By Mrs. Theo B. Davis

If well begun really means half-done, Wakelon's Parent-Teacher Association has only fifty percent of its year's work yet ahead. For the meeting on Monday night, first for this school year, saw the annual program off to a fine start.

President Willie B. Hopkins showed that he had done much preliminary thinking and planning, having ready his list of chairmen of various departments of work.

Mrs. Claude Pippin, program chairman, called on Mrs. Theo. Davis to lead in a short devotional period. Gayle and Dottie Privett sang "School Days" with Mrs. Ed Ellington, accompanist. Joellen Gill gave an appropriate reading.

Mrs. Jack Mitchell, past president, gave a brief sketch of the organization's history, and was followed by Principal Smith who discussed this year's objectives. He surprised some hearers by stating that Wakelon is one of the few rural schools having a helper teacher for children who are in any way handicapped. Miss Rebekah Tolbert has taken special courses in this branch of education, and is inaugurating it here.

The budget as outlined by Mr. Smith was adopted. After adjournment an informal reception in the economics building gave those present an opportunity to meet new teachers and greet those who have taught here in other years.

A cake-walk was held at the reception, with the prize being donated by Mrs. James Pulley. Approximately $15.00 was raised by this event.

Eldred Rountree Has Rotary Program Friday

Eldred Rountree delivered an inspirational address on Rotary Service at the meeting of the Zebulon Rotary Club last Friday night. He described the benefits gained by making a practice of giving service in business dealings and cited his own experiences both in business and while serving with the Navy as an example.

Eldred had as his guest Rev. R. H. Heriing, who spoke briefly to the club.

The program was one of a series under the direction of Rodney McNabb. The series is designed to better acquaint the club members with the duties of the various committees.

The supper was served to members of the local Rotary Club by their wives.

LOCAL BASEBALL PLAYERS

Score for Wake Forest

Many Zebulon residents went to Wake Forest last Saturday afternoon to see the Wake Forest College football team play George Washington University. Wake Forest won by a 27-14 score.

Local fans were more than usually interested in the game, since a good many of the members of the Deacon eleven played semi-pro baseball here this summer with Pettigrew Gay's entry in the Tri-County League.

All four of the Wake Forest touchdowns were scored by former Zebulon players: Halfback Bill Gregus, outfielder and pitcher; Halfback Harry Dowda, outfielder; and Halfback Pee Wee Jones, shortstop.

Other local ball players on the football squad are Boyd Allen, center; Ed Hoey, end; and Carroll Blackerby, back. Fullback Bud Lail served as lifeguard at Lake Mirl this summer.

The Pearce entry in the Tri-County League, which won the 1948 championship, also included a number of college football stars, Footsie Palmer and Charlie Richkus (who later signed with the Kinston Eagles) among them. Both men were State College stars.

Local Baptist Church Holds Special Service For 36 New Members

Rev. Carlton Mitchell, pastor of the Zebulon Baptist Church, was extended a call to the local pastorate for an indefinite period at a business session of the Zebulon church Sunday morning. Sunday School and church officials were also elected at the session.

Sunday night, on the occasion of the pastor's first anniversary of service here, a reception and recognition service was held. More than thirty new members by letter and baptism were recognized following the evening sermon, and a reception was held for them in the Sunday School department following the service. Mrs. R. H. Herring was in charge of arrangements for the reception.

New members honored were the pastor and Mrs. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Vester Brantley, Mr. Harold Bunn, Mrs. T. Y. Baker, Jr., Mrs. George H. Temple, Martha Temple, Armenia Hocutt, Patrick Leonard, Kenneth Eddins, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney McNabb, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Parrish, Dr. and Mrs. Ben Thomas, Mr. Ralph Bunn, Mr. Claud Dunn, Mrs. Haywood Jones, Patsy Allman, Jean Bunn, Jean Corbett, J. L. McGee, Annette Daniels Gayle Dunn, Shirley Faulkner, Betty Jean Phillips, Ann Strickland, Delores Pittman, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Crowder and Marie Corbett.

An officers' and teachers' clinic originally scheduled for Monday night was held at the church on Wednesday evening at 6:30 under the direction of Sunday School Superintendent L. M. Massey. The session, which followed a supper meeting, was postponed from Monday night because of conflict with the Wakelon Parent-Teacher meeting that night.

Poplar Springs Church Plans Supper Oct. 2

A barbecue supper will be served from 5:00 to 7:30 p.m. Saturday, October 2, at Poplar Springs Baptist Church by the members of the Woman's Missionary Society.

Tickets for the supper went on sale Tuesday morning, and by Wednesday afternoon 500 had already been sold. Proceeds from sale of the tickets, which are priced at $1.00 each, will be used for the purchase of new pews for the church.

The Poplar Springs Church, a member of the Tar River Baptist Association, is one unit of the Pilot-Pine Ridge-Poplar Springs field of churches served by Rev. M. A. Pegram.

Mrs. Frank Kemp Sings At Wilson Baptist Event

Mrs. Frank Kemp was guest soloist for the Annual Banquet given for installation of new officers for the Sunday School at Rev. C. E. Baucom's First Baptist Church in Wilson, N. C. The banquet was given in the club room at the Rainbow Restaurant.

Mrs. Kemp rendered three beautiful numbers, accompanied by Miss Ann Bullock of Atlantic Christian College. Following the installation of new members a movie of the Easter Parade as the congregation left the church on Easter Sunday for the past ten years was shown. Later Mr. Kemp sang a duet with Mrs. Kemp.

Too Cold for This

We illustrate here one of many uses of cotton, but we feel it has been a bit too cold yesterday and today to use the fibre this way!

Junior Woman's Club Has Meeting Tuesday

The first meeting of the 1948-49 club year was held Tuesday night with thirty members present.

President Cleo Perry announced that the club need meet only two more requirements in order to become an "honor" club, and the members voted to meet these. When they are met this year's Junior Woman's Club will be the first Woman's Club in Zebulon to become an Honor Club.

Mrs. Hazel Beck was appointed chairman of the Ways and Means Committee.

Mrs. Mary Temple had the program and introduced Miss Miriam Joyner, Assistant Home-Demonstration Agent for Wake County, who spoke interestingly and informatively on preparing the preschool child for school. She stressed the importance of teaching a child to be self-reliant, while at the same time giving him a feeling of being loved and secure.

Mrs. Agnes Hawkins, hostess, assisted by Mrs. Guericca Godwin, served a delicious dessert course.

Teaches Study Course

Mrs. Joe Tippet taught the study course of the WSCS and Spiritual Life group, Great Prayers of the Bible, at Wendell on Tuesday. Ladies of both the Wendell and Zebulon Methodist Churches met together. There were twenty present.

MRS. THEO B. DAVIS:

This, That & the Other

By Mrs. Theo. B. Davis

It is always interesting to note the expressions that are employed over and over by writers for newspapers, especially dailies. Reporters are among the first to pick up new or catchy phrases and use them to the point of abuse.

Those of us who recall such writing in the period of World War I remember how everything had a zero hour and went over the top, or failed to go. During World War II we went on missions, regardless of how, when or why. Dozens more examples might be given, but you get the idea.

Local School Has Good Opening; First Football Game Planned Oct. 1

Attendance at Wakelon School has continued good since the first day, although enrollment figures are slightly lower than anticipated last spring, Principal Fred Smith said yesterday.

The school opening this year was featured by a piano recital given by Miss Marilyn Alderman last Thursday night, and the first meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association on Monday night of this week. Miss Alderman, a native of Rose Hill, is teaching piano at Wakelon this year in addition to directing the high school glee club.

The school cafeteria opened under the continued management of Mrs. Dewey Massey last Thursday, and virtually all school children are using the lunchroom facilities. Meals are priced at 20 cents, the same as last year.

A phase of school activity this year intended to encourage student acceptance of responsibility for personal conduct is an enlarged student government program. Handbooks are being printed for members of the high school body, and will be distributed next week.

The 1948 Wakelon football team is being rapidly rounded into shape under the tutelage of Coach Jacob Smith, former Tarboro and Dunn mentor.

First game for the local high school eleven is now set for Friday, October 1, with Wendell. The game will be played on the Wendell field. Coach Smith has not yet named his complete starting lineup, but it probably will be published prior to the game next Friday afternoon.

Veterans' classes in agriculture will proceed according to previous schedule, Ed Ellington, local agriculture teacher says. There are now approximately 70 veterans in the G. I. farm training class.

Methodist Ladies Plan Farmers' Day Booth

Mrs. James Pulley will operate a food booth opposite City Market on Farmer's Day, Thursday, October 7, for the benefit of the Methodist Church building fund.

The booth will offer Brunswick stew, sandwiches, pies, candy, ice cream and cakes. All ladies belonging to the local Methodist congregation who have any materials they can contribute are asked by Mrs. Pulley to bring them to her home or to Phillips Grocery by Monday, October 4.

Any person who can prepare food items for sale at the booth may bring them there October 7, and they will be offered for sale.
