

Farmers' Day Is Held In Zebulon Yesterday

Farmers' Day in Zebulon was an event worth remembering. The bad weather of the past several days ended, and a sunny day saw hundreds of farmers in town to participate in checkers and horse-shoe pitching, hear Congressman Harold Cooley, watch the bicycle races, and listen to the fiddlers.

Mrs. Roy Brown of Zebulon, R. 2, was awarded a $100 good will prize by the Zebulon Chamber of Commerce. A full list of prize winners and participants in all the day's events will be published in the Record next week, together with the text of Mr. Cooley's talk.

Mrs. James Pulley operated a food booth for the benefit of the Zebulon Methodist Church. She reported a profitable day.

Legion Post Meets

The Cedric Harris Post of the American Legion held its October meeting Wednesday night at the Legion Hut on Highway 64 with Commander Philip Whitley presiding. Routine business was taken up at the session.

District Legion Commander Phil Bunn showed a combat film of the second world war to the members.

Farm Home Hints

Linens should be ironed on the wrong side to prevent shine. If a high gloss is desired on your damask cloths, iron first on the wrong side, then on the right. Your linens should not be starched as they have a tendency to remain firm and crisp, but a very light starching is advisable for your cotton or rayon demask cloths.

Starch is removed from iron either with a soft damp cloth and non-abrasive cleaner or with fine steel wool which can be purchased in any hardware store. Home economists recommend No. 00.

How should rayon be ironed so it won't get that shiny look? Rayons should be rolled in a turkish towel to eliminate excess moisture; then hang them on a hanger until dry enough to iron. Iron on the wrong side with a moderate iron. —Ruth Current.

Pleasant Hill News

Mrs. J. A. Whitaker of this section died Saturday afternoon, Oct. 2, 1948, after several days illness.

Surviving are her husband, J. A. Whitaker; three daughters, Mrs. J. M. Frazier of Halifax, Mrs. R. C. Alford of Zebulon, Route 4, and Mrs. Fred Bizzle of Newton Grove, Route 2; two sons, J. E. Whitaker of Wendell, Route 2, and J. F. Whitaker of Trenton, New Jersey.

Funeral service was held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Hephzibah Baptist Church by the Rev. Joe Roach, pastor.

Nephews were the pallbearers. There were many flowers, which marked the esteem which the community held for Mrs. Whitaker.

Burial was in the church cemetery.

After just a few days of fair weather, we are having a real cool rain. Lots of people have their cotton in the fields yet waiting for the cotton picker to pick it. After this I should think it is called storm cotton.

T. Y. Puryear has made the best sale of tobacco in this section so far. He sold a lot last week ranging in price from $67 to $79.

Mrs. Milton Joyner of Raleigh spent several days last week with her brother, Mr. Bryant Gay.

News from Archie Puryear, who is a patient at Veteran's Hospital near Fayetteville, is that he is improving.

We are sorry to hear Mr. Addie Moore of Aberdeen is very ill in Duke Hospital. He lived for some time in the Zebulon and Corinth sections.

We are glad to report Mrs. Mary Alice Horton is improving fast at Rex Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jeffreys and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Carter of Raleigh were visitors at Mr. J. B. Carter's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Puryear and children called to see her father Sunday evening, Mr. Eddie Blackley.

Mrs. Almus Weathers and Mrs. Albert Weathers of Rolesville called to see Mrs. A. O. Puryear Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carter took supper near Mitchell Mill Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Puryear.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Whitaker and daughter of Millington, N. J., are visiting her mother, Mrs. E. W. Hood.

Mrs. E. W. Hood returned home Monday from a few weeks visit at Booneville with her son, Edward Hood.

Mr. W. M. Hood has returned home from Canada a few weeks ago.

We are sorry Mr. B. K. Horton is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Williford of Bethany and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Carter of Raleigh were visitors at Mr. T. Y. Puryear's Saturday night.

Mr. P. Junior King of Varina spent Saturday night with Joe Yancey Thorne.

Mrs. T. Y. Puryear.

Personals

Captain and Mrs. T. C. Pippin, Jr., announce the birth of a son, T. C. Pippin, III, at Tripler Hospital, Honolulu, Hawaii, on September 25.

Mr. W. T. Gay is confined at Rex Hospital recovering from an operation.

Friends here will regret to learn that Miss Catrina Gill, who left Zebulon at the beginning of the school term to resume her work in Charlotte, had to give up her classes and go to the hospital last week. It was thought her stay would be for only a short while.

Mrs. Berry of Swanquarter spent last week here in the home of her brother, E. C. Daniel.

Pfc. Leo Williams of Zebulon is homeward bound on leave from the Pacific.

He has chosen the Regular Army for his career and after a visit and rest at home, he will depart for his new assignment.

Club, Guest Honored

Mrs. E. C. Daniel delightfully entertained the Wednesday Afternoon club at Milbournie Fishing Club near Raleigh last week, honoring her sister-in-law, Noy Daniel Berry of Swanquarter. Places were laid for the following: Mrs. G. S. Barbee, F. E. Bunn, J. F. Coltrane, M. B. Chamblee, E. C.

Daniel, C. E. Flowers, John Horton, A. R. House, J. G. Kemp, E. H. Moser, Fred Page, J. K. Barrow, C. V. Whitley, and Mrs. R. H. Her-ring, Gladys Jones, guests, and the honoree.

Refreshments consisted of barbecued chicken, potato salad, slaw, sliced tomatoes, corn bread, hot biscuits, and coffee. Dessert was ice cream and cake.

Harvest Day Sale

Clydes Chapel Baptist Church will hold services at 11 o'clock Friday morning, October 3, and then a free dinner on the ground and the big auction sale will follow with everything that can be made on a farm. The highest bidder will get the goods. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Leonard Medlin

Honored at Reception

Miss Emma Victoria Gill of Zebulon and Charles Lewis Wootton of Wendell, whose marriage was solemnized at eight Saturday, Second of October, at the Zebulon Baptist Church, their wedding attendants, out-of-town guests, and friends were complimented Friday night, October 1, with an after-rehearsal party in the Zebulon Woman's Club by the bride-elect's aunts, Mrs. Graham Dean, Mrs. Carlton Satterfield, Mrs. J. H. Sanders, all of Wendell, and Mrs. Percy Carlton of Charlotte.

The club rooms, lighted with cathedral tapers, were decorated in the traditional bridal motif carrying out the shades of green and white with basket arrangements of white gladioli, fern greenery, and a bridal scene on the mantel.

Mrs. J. H. Sanders received the guests at the door, and directed them to the registry presided over by Mrs. Carlton Satterfield.

Mrs. Percy Carlton received at the dining room door.

The refreshment table, centered with an arrangement of white roses and fern flanked by white burning tapers in crystal candelabra, was covered in an imported white linen cutwork cloth. A three tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom under a white flower bedecked altar, sat at one end of the table. White satin streamers, attached to favors in the cake, cascaded to the miniature duck pulls resting on an improvised mirrored pool.

After the first slice of cake was cut by the bridal couple-elect, Mrs. Nevel Ruric Gill, mother of the bride-elect, served the bridal cake.

At the opposite end of the table, lime ice was served from the punch bowl presided over by Mrs. Joseph T. Wootton, of Wendell and mother of the groom-elect.

Assisting in serving mints, salted pecans, lime ice, and cake were the honorary bridesmaids, and junior bridesmaids—Miss Emily Dean and Miss Margaret Sanders, both of Wendell and cousins of the bride.

The bridal couple-elect presented gifts of jewelry to their wedding attendants. Miss Gill, bride-elect, received a corsage of white roses and a piece of silver, as gifts from the hostesses.

Goodbyes were said to Mrs. Graham Dean of Wendell.

Approximately 100 guests were received.
