

Camporee Is Scheduled For Scouts This Week

Three candidates passed the examination supervised by George Riggsby Massey and were declared ready to become Tenderfoot Scouts at the meeting of Troop 40 in the Hut Monday night. The successful candidates were Irvin Murphy, Floyd McCabe and Keith Temple.

The applications have been mailed to Oconeechee Council headquarters in Raleigh, and the Scouts are hoping the membership cards will be back in time for the trio to take part in the camporee to be held this weekend.

A checker tournament was played at the close of the meeting, and Billy McCabe won first place, Bobby McGee took second.

The troop will leave Friday afternoon with full camping equipment for the camporee at Camp Durant, located between Raleigh and Wake Forest. They will return to Zebulon Sunday afternoon.
