

Wakelon Bulldogs Held to 6-6 Tie by Spring Hope

Statistics Favor Local Eleven; Miscues Cost Wakelon Hard Fight

Coach Jacob Smith's Wakelon Bulldogs opened up like a ball of fire to take a second period 6-0 lead over Spring Hope last Friday night, only to have their attack sputter and stall in the final quarter as the Spring Hope eleven capitalized on Wakelon mistakes to tie the score and almost win the football game. The contest was played at night on the Spring Hope gridiron.

Led by speedy little quarterback Bobby Bridgers and hard-charging halfback J. C. Liles, the Bulldogs marched 80 yards to score the third time they had the ball.

The scoring drive was headed by Bridgers and Liles, who alternated in carrying the ball through five first downs. A pass good for 35 yards from Bridgers to Mangum gave Wakelon six points. Bridgers was a yard short in his run for the extra point.

The Wakelon game was spotted with fumbles, three of them proving costly when Spring Hope recovered them. A game-opening drive which started on the Wakelon 45 yard line came to a halt when Spring Hope recovered a fumble on their own 29 yard line after Wakelon had forged ahead for two first downs.

Spring Hope Scores

The Spring Hope score was set up late in the game when a Wakelon pass was intercepted and returned to the Wakelon 33 yard line. Three plays cost the Spring Hope team seven yards as Mangum and Kitchings led the Bulldog line in smothering the attack. However, Liles fumbled the Spring Hope punt and they recovered on the Wakelon 23 yard line. Led by their 145 pound quarterback, Jerry Edwards, the Spring Hope eleven made a first down on the Wakelon 12, and another on the Wakelon 1 yard line. Edwards, on a quarterback sneak, went across from there. The same play failed to work for the extra point.

The Spring Hope crew almost copped the game in the final seconds. With less than two minutes remaining following the kickoff Wakelon made a first down on their own 36 yard line. Two passes and a run placed the ball on the Wakelon 37 yard line, where with seconds remaining, Bridgers punted. Spring Hope took the punt on their own 35 yard line, and as the final whistle blew, raced 62 yards down the sidelines before being forced out of bounds on the Wakelon two-yard line.

The Bulldogs dominated the statistics, piling up 11 first downs to four for Spring Hope. They traveled 102 yards on the ground and 56 yards by air for a total gain of 158 yards. However, during the second half they were able to accumulate only 10 of the yards gained on the ground.

Wakelon threw 12 passes, completed six, and gained 56 yards by the air ways. Spring Hope completed two out of seven for 17 yards. On the ground Spring Hope made 83 yards.

Fumbles and one intercepted pass cost Wakelon the ball game, although bad quarterbacking gave Spring Hope the breaks in the second half.

Bridgers, Brantley, and Liles led the Wakelon offense, while on defense, Worth Croom was the sparkplug, making tackle after tackle. He returned to the lineup twice being carried from the field because of injuries. Big Dan Privette, shifted to tackle on defense, and Robert Kitchings also turned in a hard game. Fred Mangum starred both on offense and defense, catching the touchdown pass from Bridgers for Wakelon's only score.
