

A. B. Montgomery, 63, Dies at Home of Nephew

A. B. Montgomery, 63, died at the home of this nephew, James R. Creech in Zebulon, early Wednesday morning. Mr. Montgomery, a retired farmer and railroad man, had been in ill health for a number of years.

He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Maggie Creech of Zebulon, and Mrs. Addie Bass of Wilson; one brother, J. D. Montgomery, of Micro, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were from the home of his brother, J. D. Montgomery, yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Denny of Wilson. Interment was in the family cemetery in Johnston County.

Fire Warning Given

This is the most dangerous time of the year for farmers, since timberlands are dry and quick to blaze when a spark is present, County Forest Warden H. E. Shaw stated this week. He reminded farmers that during this season burning permits are necessary before any material in any of the areas of woodland under the protection of the State Forestry Service can be ignited.

There is no charge for the granting of the permits, which are not necessary for fires started within 500 feet of a dwelling house.

Permits for this vicinity are issued by W. I. Hopkins, Route 2, Zebulon; J. W. Oneal, Knightdale; J. D. Tippett, Route 3, Zebulon; and the agriculture teachers at Wakelon and Shepard Schools.
