

Board Meets

with both the law and permit by April 30, court action would be taken by the Town of Zebulon. The letter was delivered on Tuesday.

The commissioners reported that they had been delighted with response to the petitions being circulated on Sycamore Street which ask that the street be paved. A special meeting was called for Tuesday night, April 19, for final reports on this project, at which time some action will be taken on the work.

The clerk, in his report, stated that the town was in excellent financial condition, and that in the past two years over $35,000 in improvements have been made in Zebulon. This is in addition to the eleven blocks of street paving.

Present at the meeting were Mayor R. H. Bridges, Commissioner R. Vance Brown, Howard Beck, Norman Screws, Bob Sawyer, and Barrie Davis, and Clerk W. B. Hopkins.

The next regular meeting of the board will be held May 2, the night before the election.

Brantley-Crowder

Carlton Mitchell officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

Floor baskets of white gladioli and iris with tall scandelabra stood before a background of greenery in the chancel.

A program of appropriate music was given by Mrs. Rodney McNabb, organist, and Mrs. Frank Kemp, soloist.

Noel Fowler, brother-in-law of the bride, and Jimmie Spivey were ushers. Foster Lewis was best man.

Mrs. Noel Fowler was her sister's only attendant. She wore green linen with harmonizing accessories and carried a bouquet of pink carnations centered with yellow roses.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore aqua faille with black accessories and carried a Bible on which was a white orchid with ribbon streamers.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Brantley left for a short trip. They are now at home in an apartment on Arrendall Avenue at the home of Mrs. J. E. Carter.

Pastors Kermit Combs and Carlton Mitchell with Rev. R. H. Herring attended the Ministers' Conference in Raleigh Monday.
