

Lizard Lick News

Many came out to church Sunday even though our pastor, Joe F. Roach, wasn't there. He had to be away so he called in a speaker in his place. We hope he will be back next Sunday to worship with us. We want everyone that will to come.

The cemetery still hasn't been cleaned and put in good shape all the way yet. Those having loved ones buried there try and fix up your plots or have some one do it for you. The longer you wait the longer and the harder it will be to put the grounds in good shape. The people of Hephzibah along with the pastor are asking you to do this in the near future.

Our hearts go out in great sympathy to the family of Mr. Jack Todd who passed away at his home on N. Person Street in Raleigh Saturday. He was buried in the Hephzibah Cemetery Sunday at 4 p.m. The funeral was preached in Yelverton Funeral Home in Raleigh at 2:30 p.m. Sunday. Surviving are two children and three grandchildren. Mr. Todd lived in this section and Wendell for many, many years before moving to Raleigh a few years ago.

We have a list of new sick people this week and trust they will soon be on the road to recovery. Among them are Mr. Roscoe Alford and Mr. Bryant Gay. Little Nadine Hobgood has mumps but is doing fine at the present. Our best goes out to all the sick everywhere and may you be well soon.

There's a saying that "your head gets heavier than your feet or your feet heavier than your head" when someone takes a fall, but I advise you to ask Mrs. Pearl Wood about that. She was visiting her mother, Mrs. J. B. Carter on Friday of last week when she fell down four cement steps. She was carrying little Judy Pearce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Pearce, in her arms. The baby was unharmed but for Mrs. Wood, she got several bad bruises. We hope they will soon be healed.

The meeting at the Tabernacle Church came to a close last Sunday. It was a wonderful service. The baptizing will be the second Sunday in June at 4:30 p.m. at Lake Myra, if there are no changes in the plans between now and then. Everyone is invited to come.

Mrs. J. B. Carter, Mr. and Mrs.

D. L. Moody and Joe Moody were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stanly Atkinson and family of Cherry Point.

Little Ronnie Gay visited Sally Ann Wood Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thorne have moved to the Pleasant Hill section.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carter visited Mrs. Joe Moody of Rolesville during the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Pearce had visitors from near Chapel Hill Sunday.

Mr. Flyson Gay and son, Cameron, of Clayton were Sunday visitors of Mr. Bertie Carter. They brought along several shad fish for Mr. Carter, one weighing five pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Sexton Alford and daughter of the Tabernacle section and Mr. J. H. Hunter and Craven Carroll of the same section and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hurley and children of Cary were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Alford.

Mr. Lattie Sarrel of Raleigh was visiting in this section Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Wood and family were among the picnic group to go to Lake Mirl Sunday.

The children enjoyed a swim after lunch.

Many that could spare the time from their farm work in this section went to Raleigh to see the Shrine Parade last Thursday.

Miss Charlotte Fuller of near Wilders Grove was the weekend guest of Miss Millie Fuller.

We welcome back in this section Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hedricks and children of near Knightdale. They plan to move here the first of June.

Mrs. W. E. Fuller spent Saturday in Rex Hospital by the bed of a sister-in-law, Miss Nellie Fuller, of Zebulon, who is ill there. We hope she will soon be well and home. Mrs. Fuller also visited her Sunday and many others whom she knew that were in the hospital. May the good health chart soon be theirs.

We are very sorry that Mr. Anton "Jiggs" Pearce of the police force in Wendell is seriously sick in Rex Hospital. He is suffering from a throat operation that was performed Saturday. Our best goes to him and his family and may his be a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gay have set Thursday night of this week for their house warming in their new home.

We are very glad to see Mr. Billy Horton back in this section again.

Mr. Howard Starnes of Durham visited in this section during the weekend.

—Mrs. Polly Fuller.
