

Sunday School Lesson

Golden Text: "O Lord our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who has set thy glory above the heavens."—Psalm 8:1. Scripture lesson: Psalm 19:1-6; 65:9-13; 104:24.

Next Sunday, August 21, we continue the study of the Book of Psalms with selections from three of the ancient Hebrew songs which express praise for the works of God.

The nineteenth Psalm expresses awe and joy at the infinite creations of God—the heavens and the land, the sun and the good earth which receives its beneficial rays.

The sixty-fifth Psalm thanks God for his works of mercy: for the rains which fall and water the crops, for the pastures and fields which are the recipients of the life-giving fluid, for the beasts of the farm which fatten upon watered fields.

The 104th Psalm thanks God for his works of wisdom, which are manifold. The earth, the psalmist declares, is full of the riches of the Lord.

In this particular season this lesson must strike a responsive note in the hearts of each of us. We may thank God that we are situated in this garden area of the world. We may thank our Maker that he has given us another good crop year, that we have been thus far spared the devastation of hail and hurricane.

Finally we may thank God for his wisdom in providing us with these riches—and most of all, we must pray always for the wisdom to use these riches wisely.

Farm Home Hints

For variety in sweetings plus flavors from the flower world, try honey, say food specialists.

Ways to use honey to advantage in summer meals include the following suggested by the food preparation specialist:

Use honey to sweeten cool fruit drinks. Honey also makes a likeable sweetening for iced tea and coffee.

Serve honey fruit cup as a first course or dessert. If fruits in the cup are mild and sweet, mix lemon juice with honey, add to the fruit and then chill before serving. If the fruit includes a tart kind, such as grapefruit, add honey alone.

For a quick salad dressing to go over fruit combinations, mix equal parts of honey and lemon juice. Add celery seed, if desired.

Miss House Honored

Mrs. Frederick Chamblee was hostess at a bridge party in her home on Friday evening, honoring Miss Jocelyn House, bride-elect of August. The living room was decorated with white Hydrangea and lavender butterfly flowers.

Before the bridge game, Miss Diana Chamblee brought Miss House a series of original poems and gifts offering advice to brides, and a corsage of mixed summer flowers. Later in the evening Mrs. Chamblee gave the honoree a gift of silver.

Mrs. Garland Godwin won high score prize and Mrs. Eugene Privette won low score. Mrs. Wallace Chamblee won the floating prize. Delicious refreshments of ice cream, cake, nuts and mints were served.

Guests included the honoree, Mesdames George Henry Temple, Howard Beck, Rom Moser, P. C. Stott, Eugene Privette, Garland Godwin and Wallace Chamblee.

Mrs. Percy Stott of Burlington, was hostess at bridge at the home of her mother Mrs. J. B. Outlaw in Zebulon, Monday evening complimenting Miss Jocelyn House, bride-elect of Saturday. Arrangements of mixed summer flowers were used throughout the home. Miss House received a corsage of white carnations.

When scores were tallied winners of high, floating and low score prizes were Mrs. Wallace Chamblee and Mrs. Armstrong Cannady. Mrs. J. M. Coleman, Jr. of Richmond received a gift.

The hostess presented Miss House silver in her pattern.

During the game iced drinks were served and late in the evening the hostess, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Frank Freeze, served a dessert course.

Those playing were: Miss House, Mesdames Garland Godwin, Frederick Chamblee, Rom Moser, Charles E. Flowers, Sr., J. F. Coltrane, Armstrong Cannady, R. Vance Brown, Fred Page, Wallace Chamblee, J. M. Coleman, Jr. and Miss Ruby Dawson.

Card of Thanks

I wish to express my deepest appreciation for the kindnesses shown me during the illness and death of my father, Mr. J. F. O'Neal.

Zebulon Rotary Club Praises Work of Gill

The following letter, endorsed unanimously by members of the Zebulon Rotary Club, was sent to Willard Gill, who has served without pay as chief umpire at local softball games this summer.

Dear Willard:

We, the members of the Zebulon Rotary Club, sponsors of the Soft Ball League, wish to express our appreciation for the interest you have shown in donating your time and talents in umpiring our softball games. This service gives enjoyable hours to both players and spectators.

When our schedule of play is completed we can say your fairness to all teams made every game worth seeing.
