NEW FASHION

Listen to his heart lilt when he sees you in this dancing dress that's as soft and rustling as a September evening. Comopolitan magazine's Male Jury succumbed to its romantically-whispering taffeta, gossamer-like lace and bare shoulder styling. Choose from gold, Kelly green or bronze taffeta and dapple it with the black lace overshift—for about $40.

Wakelon School Opens With Large Enrollment

Wakelon School opened its 1949-50 term Tuesday morning with an enrollment of 718 students—531 in the elementary school and 187 in high school.

Opening exercises, attended by about 150 parents and other school patrons as well as the students, included invocation by Rev. Paul Carruth, devotional by Rev. Carlton Mitchell, welcome to teachers by PTA President Howard Beck, and remarks by Herbert Appenzeller, new Wakelon coach.

Principal Fred Smith recognized the parents attending the exercises, and gave specific details of plans for the school year. Yesterday Mr. Smith announced that a band instructor had begun work at the school with a starting class of sixteen boys and girls.

The Wakelon football schedule, which will be the most ambitious in years, will be released next week. Teams already scheduled include Cary, Wendell, Norlina, Farmville, Spring Hope, and Cathedral Latin of Raleigh.

Raleigh YWA Holds Meeting

A Council meeting of Y. W. A.'s of Raleigh Association met at Hephzibah Community Center last Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Joe High is director of young people work and Mrs. Oris Horton counselor of Y. W. A. work in Raleigh Association. About fifty members came from different churches. Rev. Joe Roach, and Rev. Rogers made short talks. Mrs. Joe High gave a very inspiring devotional. Special music was rendered by Miss Wallace of Fuquay Springs, Mrs. Mitchell of Zebulon and Mrs. Nellie Kemp of Zebulon, accompanied by Charles Horton of Zebulon. Miss Vivian Nowell brought the closing message, reminding us of never to forget Africa.

This meeting was carried out in form of a tea. At the close, all the counselors and officers formed a receiving line. The guests and members of Y. W. A. enjoyed the fellowship of meeting these distinguished people in His service.

Refreshment consisted of mints, cakes, nuts and fruit punch served by committees in various Y. W. A.'s of the Association.

Sheriff Robert Pleasants, Wake County's youngest chief law enforcement officer, addressed the Zebulon Rotary Club last Friday night, speaking on the high cost of crime. Wake County, its municipalities, and its other agencies, he declared, spend $1,015 a day on law enforcement but vastly more on crime itself.

Sheriff Pleasants appeared as the guest of Deputy G. C. Massey, who had charge of the program. He was

Farm Bureau Plans First Fall Meeting For Monday Night

The first regular fall meeting of the Zebulon unit of the Farm Bureau will be held Monday night, September 12th, in the Wakelon High School Auditorium at 8 o'clock, President Garland Richardson announced yesterday.

State Secretary Flake Shaw will be the principal speaker at this meeting. Mr. Shaw is personally known to many local farmers and is known as being well informed concerning the problems and needs of the farmer.

"It is becoming increasingly important to maintain and strengthen our farm organization. This can be affectively done only by your regular attendance and whole-hearted support. Be sure to attend this meeting!" Mr. Richardson declared.

"Sixty percent of all farm organizations belong to farm bureaus, so they must be doing a worth while job. Let us resolve, without delay, to make ours bigger and better as we work faithfully toward a progressive continuation of a worthy task well begun."

The annual membership drive will be discussed at Monday night's meeting of the Farm Bureau.
