Wake County Farm Agent Praises Foundation Plan for Cattle Raising

By John L. Reitzel

The first offspring of dairy calves produced by the animals distributed through the Wake Dairy Calf Foundation were distributed November 18 at 3:30 o'clock on the farm of Mr. T. K. Jones of Willow Springs. At this ceremony 2 heifer calves were distributed to Jerry Poole of the Garner 4-H Club and Maynard Pearce, 4-H Club member of Willow Springs.

Jerry Poole received a Jersey heifer which had been grown out by Maynard Smith of the Willow Springs 4-H Club. Maynard Smith's first calf was sponsored by the Sanders Motor Company of Raleigh and now the same company is sponsoring the calf which Jerry Poole has received.

The Guernsey calf which was received by Maynard Pearce was grown out by Bobby Jones, 4-H club member of the Willow Springs Club. These calves were sponsored by the Bank of Fuquay.

Mr. Dave Worth, Secretary of the Wake Dairy Calf Foundation, was present and presented Maynard Smith and Bobby Jones with their registration papers and commented on the fine job the boys had done in caring for their dairy calves. He stated further that he hoped that they would continue to show interest in livestock development in Wake County.

Through the Wake Dairy Calf Foundation, there have been 34 high bred animals made available to boys and girls throughout the county. Other calves will be distributed in the near future to new boys and girls as the animals become available for distribution.

Wake County Foundation calves which have been shown at district shows for the past 2 years have stood high in the shows. Both years they have carried off a linesize share of the honors and prize money.

Plans Are Made For Cotton Ballot Throughout South

The first cotton referendum since before the war has been set for December 15, according to G. T. Scott, chairman of the State PMA committee. On that date growers in North Carolina and elsewhere in the nation will go to local and county polling places to vote for or against continuing marketing quotas.

Marketing quotas on the 1950 crop were declared on October 13 by Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan. The referendum is being held in accordance with provisions of the 1938 Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended, which directs the Secretary to proclaim quotas on the 1950 crop and to call for a referendum of growers to determine whether they want quotas continued. Only farmers growing cotton in 1949 are eligible to vote.

Marketing quotas will be in effect only if approved by at least two-thirds of the growers voting in the referendum. Any person who has an interest in the crop as owner, tenant, or sharecropper is considered a grower and may vote. No producer, however, is entitled to more than one vote even though he may have been engaged in cotton production on more than one farm.

Woodmen to Provide Parties at Orphanages

A Christmas collection was taken up at the meeting of Little River Camp 10065 W. O. W., Wednesday night in the Masonic Lodge. Every Sovereign will be given an opportunity to contribute to the fund, to be used to help stage parties for every orphanage in North Carolina.

Over North Carolina 32,500 Woodmen are contributing to the Christmas fund, and the money received will be proportionately given to the orphanages according to the number of children cared for.

Woodmen of the Little River Camp will join with the Rock Ridge WOW Camp to supervise a Christmas party for the Free Will Baptist Orphanage at Middlesex.

Woodchoppers Ray Gaine and Wilbur Debnam head the committee to provide for a dinner at the December business meeting, when officers for 1950 will be elected.

The officers will be installed at a dinner meeting in January. Consul Commander Barrie Davis told the group. The wives and sweethearts of the Woodchoppers will be honored guests at this time.

Sentry Gordon Temple reported that the resolution calling for a Recreation Committee for Zebulon will be presented to the Town Board in time for the December meeting of that group. The Woodmen unanimously voted two weeks ago to request immediate action by the Board of Commissioners of Zebulon in forming a Recreation Committee.
