

Hopkins Chapel

We were very glad to see so many people at Sunday School and Church the last two Sundays. Everybody come next Sunday and hear our pastor, Rev. Fred Crisp.

Hopkins Chapel W. M. S. will observe its week of prayer at church Saturday evening, December 3, at 7 o'clock. Visitors are always welcome.

Misses Velva and Norma Pearce spent the weekend in Durham with their daddy, F. M. Pearce.

Mr. Noble A. Bunn and family ate Thanksgiving dinner at Iris Temp's.

The J. O. Pearces spent Sunday at Ben Pearce's in the New Hope Community.

The Lovie Perry Bible Class was so glad to have Dorothy Rhodes back with them at Sunday School Sunday. Truly, we extend a get-well wish to all the sick in our community and others also.

We know that all things work together for good to them that love God. Rom. 8:28.

PILOT NEWS

We certainly had some beautiful weather for Thanksgiving. We hope everyone had a nice Thanksgiving.

We had quite a few to attend the Thanksgiving Service on Thursday morning. An offering was made for the Baptist Orphanages.

A lot of people enjoyed turkey on Thanksgiving.

Quite a bit of visiting here and there:

The Bunn's had a family dinner on Thanksgiving in the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Todd at Lake Wendell.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Pearce, Mrs. Mamie Bunn, and Mrs. Geneva Pearce visited in Norfolk for the weekend.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rikeo back home after being away in Honolulu for quite awhile.

Billy Pearce of the Army was home for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Garvey of Washington D. C., were home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Williams, for Thanksgiving.

Relatives of Durham spent Thanksgiving Day here with Mr. and Mrs. Joe D. Stallings.

Judith, Melrose, and Johnny were home from Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Dollie Tant were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Bunn on Sunday night.

Judy Brantley is visiting here with her sister, Mrs. Hester Lewis.

The Lewis family had Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Lewis.

There was a birthday dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bun Brantley on Sunday. Everyone enjoyed it.

Elliott Channell spent Thanksgiving here with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bunn.

We had a wedding also, Patricia Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Jones, and Bill Ravbon were married on Saturday in her home.

We are sorry about the loss of Hester Brantley's outside building.

For the preaching service on Sunday night, Mr. Peagram's message was on "Prayer."

The W. M. S. has been invited to attend the Study Course at Pearce's on Thursday night.

We have quite a few on our sick list this week. Mrs. Millard Stallings and Mrs. Fred Watkins are in the hospital. Mr. Mark Ray and Eetsy John Davis are also sick. We wish for them a speedy recovery.

Ray Lewis, John Curtis Ray, Talmadge Ray, Boyce Stallings, and Burdon Williams visited in Elizabeth City with the Bjorks.

Don't forget our church services and plan to be present.

Lizard Lick

Remember the services at Hephzibah each Sunday morning. Sunday School at ten and preaching at eleven a. m. Also don't forget the Training Union every Sunday night, and bring your children.

Most of our sick are improving, and we are very glad. Mrs. Walter Gay is still under the doctor's care, but we trust she's improved. For myself, I'm up but not entirely well as yet. I'm still under the doctor's treatment for my head, but am trusting to be all well very soon. Our best goes out to all the sick ones everywhere, and may good health soon by theirs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hurley and children of Cary, and Mr. Charles Alford of Raleigh were visitors in this section on Thursday afternoon of last week.

Mrs. Charles Wood had as her weekend guest, her brother, little Johnny Brannon, of the Glory Community.
