

Honored at Shower

Miss Mary Elizabeth Pierce, who will become the bride of Leland S. Marshall, and Miss Hilda Pierce, who will become the bride of J. W. Cunningham on February 18, were honored at an informal party and miscellaneous shower on Thursday night, February 9, by Mrs. Richard P. Pierce and Mrs. Robert E. Pierce at the latter's home near Zebulon.

Cut flowers and white tapers were used throughout the home. Games were played. After the brides-elect received miscellaneous gifts the hostesses served refreshments to about fifty guests.

Nosegay corsages were presented the brides-elect.

Fidelis Class Meets

The Senior Fidelis Class of the Baptist Sunday School, in their February meeting in the home of Mrs. Garland Godwin, hear a most interesting discussion by Mrs. Kermit Combs of Wakefield.

Presented by Mrs. Eldred Rountree, associate hostess, the speaker based her remarks on a recent book by Mrs. Nell Outlaw, "Voiceless Lips." The author uses flowers to bring messages of inspiration, and Mrs. Combs arranged cutouts of those mentioned to make a Valentine design on a flannelgraph.

A short business session was held after which the hostesses served refreshments. Twenty-three were present.
