Williams, began a passing game killing time. Gwen Smith missed a layup with 35 seconds remaining, but Wakelon regained possession of the ball and the freeze was resumed. Just at the horn which ended the game Ruth Brown faked the Cary guard out of position and broke through the defense for a layup which gave Wakelon its four-point victory margin, 52-48. Gwen Smith scored 14 points and Joellen Gill scored seven points for Wakelon. Velva Pearce, playing the entire game, starred at guard, aided by Ruth Pace, Shirley Chamblee, and Inez Pierce.

Three of the starters in Tuesday night's game are playing their final year for Wakelon. Ruth Brown and Gwen Smith, both ace forwards who have sparked the Wakelon scoring, and Velva Pearce, who played her best game against Cary, will graduate this spring.

- 3 cups cooked Riceland Rice

- ½ cup buttered dry bread crumbs

- Salt and pepper to taste

To Cook Riceland Rice: Put 1 cup of Riceland Rice, 1 teaspoon of salt and 2 cups of cold water in a large saucepan and cover with a tight-fitting lid. Set over a hot flame until it boils vigorously. Then reduce the heat as low as possible and simmer for 14 minutes more, during which time the water will be absorbed, making the rice deliciously tender. Remove the lid, permit the rice to steam dry to the desired consistency and the grains will be separate and fluffy. Always use Riceland Rice for best results.

To Assemble: Blend milk or water with condensed cream of mushroom soup until it is smooth. Mix with hot fluffy cooked Riceland Rice. Season to taste. Place in a shallow greased baking dish. Sprinkle the top with grated cheese and buttered crumbs mixed together. Place sliced tomatoes on top. Season slices with salt and pepper and brush lightly with melted butter or margarine. Set in a moderately hot oven, 375 to 400 degrees and bake until the whole dish is bubbly hot, the cheese has melted and the top is lightly browned and the tomatoes are slightly cooked.
