

Lizard Lick

Last Sunday the attendance at Hephzibah was 202, less than the 212 on the Sunday before. We wonder why the attendance has to continue to drop off when on some Sundays the goal of a perfect attendance is reached.

The superintendent, Mr. Thomas Faison, has asked everyone to be present next Sunday and for every class to check on its members.

Many are wondering about the September revival. Dr. Clyde Turner of Raleigh will assist in this meeting.

Each night this week a youth's revival is being held in the Tabernacle Baptist Church. The time is 7:30. The speaker is Dr. Wayne Cats. Do your best to attend these services. Even though the distance to Raleigh is far, you will find it worth your while to attend.

The boys and girls of the community are urged to get their books from the library for good reading, but please return them as soon as you finish with them so others may have the opportunity to read them also.

The Philathea Class at Hephzibah will meet next Friday at 3:00 p. m. in the Community Center. All members are asked to come to this meeting.

The giving on the parsonage fund has slowed down very much. The pastor urges those that can and will to give to this cause so as to lessen the burden.

Remember the regular services each Sunday a. m. and evening. Your church needs you and you need the church. "Don't try to selfishly bargain with God." It won't work. Come to church next Sunday.

Mrs. George Yancey is still on the sick list and shows little improvement. We trust she will soon recover.

Mrs. Floyd Johnson is improved and we are so happy for her and glad to see her out.

Little Gerald Parrish has chicken pox.

To all others who are sick we extend our best and God speed your recovery. May the best of health soon be yours.

Mr. Loomis Parrish spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Parrish. He visited other relatives in this section also while here.

Mrs. Myrtle Bolton celebrated her 68th birthday at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Sigman Walls, of Knightdale last Sunday. She was visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Gene Bunn, also of Knightdale. And with a little surprise work of the family she was carried to the granddaughter's home where a delicious table of food was prepared, all a surprise to Mrs. Bolton. The family and friends also very joyously celebrated with her. May she rejoice even more in the birthdays to come, which we trust to be many more.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Liles and children and Mrs. Nuber Bolton visited Mrs. Stacy Gay Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hocutt and Jean of the Tabernacle section and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hurley and children of Cary were the Sunday afternoon visitors of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Alford. Rev. Wayne Poole, pastor of the Tabernacle Church, called in the home for a short while also during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Parrish and Mr. Bradford Bobbitt of Henderson and Miss Nellie Fuller of Zebulon were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fuller.

Miss Annie Ruth Rhodes had many of her friends to join with her on a wiener roast last Sunday p. m. This was her birthday. Among the group were Misses Fannie Mae Gay, Jackie Pearce, and many others of this section.

Miss Faye Driver of the Tabernacle section spent Wednesday p. m. of last week with Miss Millie Fuller. On Friday afternoon Millie returned Faye's visit and attended the Tabernacle revival with her.

Miss Annie Ruth Rhodes spent Saturday night with Miss Fannie Mae Gay. Miss Jackie Pearce visited with her Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. B. J. Wiggs' mother, Mrs. Williford, is spending some time with her and her family.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Dean and daughter, Ruby, spent the weekend in Portsmouth Va., with Mr. and Mrs. Trigg Harrison.

Mrs. Polly Fuller
