

PLEASANT HILL

We are still making an average of around 200 at Sunday School. Live the better life and help others for they are in need of the same Lord we love and serve. Invite a friend to church next Sunday.

The Baker Bible class meeting met at 8:00 p.m. Wednesday, June 28, at the Community Center.

The following joined our church Sunday before last: John Sledge, Richard Liles, Rupert May, and Tony Ellington. Baptismal services were held last Sunday evening at 8:00 in the Wendell Baptist Church.

The young people had charge of the singing during church hour last Sunday. They did fine.

The Rev. Joe Roach preached Sunday afternoon at Sandy Creek Church for the homecoming.

We are sorry Mrs. J. R. Batton is still not improving much. She is at Mrs. Myrtle Bolton's at the home of Mr. Sledge.

Mrs. E. W. Hood spent Monday and Tuesday with her daughter, Mrs. T. Y. Puryear. Mrs. D. A. Gay and little son, Don, of Wilson and Mrs. Lumas Weathers were visitors at Mrs. Puryear's Tuesday afternoon.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Carter a daughter on June 25, at Rex Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Puryear and children visited Mr. and Mrs. John Moody of Rolesville Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Ervin Privette and sons, Ervin, Jr. and Hillard, of Wendell spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Horton.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gay and children returned from New Jersey last week after spending some time there.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Allen and children of Selma spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. T. Y. Puryear, Jr.

We are sorry to hear Mr. Frank Weathers is in Rex Hospital. Hope he will soon be much better.
