THE YO-YO HAT

Associate Justice A. A. F. Seawell's death Saturday brought a long-simmering State Supreme Court situation to a boil.

At least three of the Justices, including Mr. Seawell, were eligible for retirement. All three wanted to retire, but when Governor Scott was elected did not do so. They felt that occupation of the State's highest tribunal called for men of dignity with the highest concept of their duties. They did not retire because they were afraid of the type men Governor Scott would name to replace them.

In other words, from a State standpoint they were afraid that their retirement would put the Governor in a position of "packing" the State Supreme Court, much in the same manner that President Roosevelt sought to handpick members of the nation's highest tribunal.

Thus the Governor's appointment to succeed Justice Seawell will be given the utmost scrutiny. If the Justices are displeased with

SFC Jeffrey Carter With Marine Force Fighting in Korea

WITH THE FIRST CALVARY DIVISION IN KOREA. — One of the men with Task Force Lynch, an element of the 7th U. S. Calvary, who broke through Red Korean defense near Tabudong and sped 35 miles to Sangju, Korea, was Sgt. 1st Class Jeffrey D. Carter, son of Urtrice B. Carter, Zebulon, N. C.

It was this task force that made the first serious breach of the North Korean positions along the Naktang River and routed the enemy. The American task force was composed of Calvarymen spearheaded by medium tanks.

The unit, which rushed 20 miles through enemy territory on the first day of its dash and then climaxed its daring operation by going another 15 miles and reaching its final objective on the second day, overran and captured enemy tanks, vehicles, artillery pieces and antitank weapons. Task Force Lynch also captured more than 50 prisoners and killed more than 500 Red Korean soldiers.

the appointment, feel the Governor has done just what they feared, there will be no retirement until after the next gubernatorial election. They will stay on, and possibly will help campaign for a conservative governor in 1952. However, if Scott names a conservative, or even a "conservative liberal," two of the remaining justices likely will go ahead and retire if they are convinced Scott will do likewise in naming their successors.

The new appointment probably will be made by the time this reaches print. But there is no dearth of candidates for the Su-

LIONS' GOVERNOR TO VISIT LOCAL GROUP THURSDAY

Lion District Governor Wilber Pike of Pikeville will be the principal speaker at the dinner meeting of the Zebulon Lions Club to be held Thursday night, October 19, at 7:00 in the recreation room of the Zebulon Methodist Church, President Worth Hinton announced yesterday. The Lions International officer is an excellent speaker and full attendance of the local club is expected to be present to hear him.

The Zebulon Lions are leading District 1 on the point contest for activities. The district includes all of Wake County. The local organization has also been 100 percent in attendance for this month.

Rev. Carlton Mitchell, pastor of the Zebulon Baptist Church, and Rev. James S. Potter, who is conducting the revival at the Baptist Church this week, will be special guests at the Thursday night meeting.

OLD NORTH STATE GIVES AUTOMOBILE THIEVES HARD TIME

Members of the Theft Bureau assisted in the recovery of 61 stolen cars during the month of September, the North Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles reported recently.

The Theft Bureau also began investigation into the theft of 55 stolen cars.

Of the 2,743 trucks, 2,333 were North Carolina trucks and 410 out-of-state trucks. One hundred and fifty-five trucks were found to have insufficient licenses, with 127 of these being North Carolina trucks and 28 out-of-state. Of the 19 trucks found to be over the road limit, 15 were North Carolina trucks and four were out-of-state.

A total of $36,498.33 was collected in penalties and additional license fees, with $7,237.94 coming from additional license fees and $7,440 from penalties on privately owned trucks. For hire vehicles brought in $16,661.39 in additional license fees, with penalties amounting to $5,159.

Woodchopper Supper On Wednesday Night

The Woodmen of the World will meet Wednesday night, October 18, at 8:00, at the Scout Hut for final tabulation and awarding of prizes in the membership drive which winds up this week, and Assistant State Manager Hiram A. Melvin will be present to make the presentation.

A free supper will be served to all the Woodmen and their guests, Financial Secretary Claud Dunn said yesterday.

Rotary Club Hears Carlton Mitchell

Carlton Mitchell, pastor of the Zebulon Baptist Church, gave an inspirational talk to fellow members of the Zebulon Rotary Club Friday night on the things that Rotary means to him. The speech by the Club Service committee chairman proved interesting and informative.

Six months after he joined the organization, Carlton said, he would have been unable to answer the question, but as time has passed, he has gained a greater understanding of the ideals and principals of Rotary and it has meant more and more to him.

James Brown was welcomed as the newest member of the local group.

Tentative plans were made for entertaining the teachers and the Rotarians on Friday night, October 27.

Sisters Are Injured In Peculiar Accident

In a peculiar accident at the M. G. Crowder home Sunday afternoon Mary Neil and Jean Fowler, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Fowler, were hurt in an unusual accident. They were running for a ball that had been thrown into the air and ran together with force sufficient for Mary Neil's teeth to cut a gash in her younger sister's forehead and to break two teeth for the older girl. They were taken to the Zebulon Clinic, where two stitches were taken in Jean's forehead. On Monday a dentist's opinion was that it may be possible to save the teeth.
