

LIZARD LICK NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Privette are both on our sick list. Mrs. Privette has been confined to her bed since Tuesday of last week, but at the time of this writing she is improving. Mr. Privette is up most of the time but is unable to get about very much, even with the aid of crutches.

Mr. Floyd V. Johnson is very ill at this time. He was sick in bed for several days at his home but grew worse Saturday and was taken to Mary Elizabeth Hospital. May his be a speedy recovery so he can soon be home and out again.

We are happy to say that Mr. W. T. Sherron is better and able to be out again.

Mrs. Edna Honeycutt isn't feeling up to par these days and has to make frequent trips to the doctor. May good health soon be hers.

Mr. A. C. Hobgood is ailing also but hasn't gone to bed. We hope he too, will soon feel fine.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fuller and Millie spent Sunday with Mrs. Fuller's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Parrish, at Greystone. After a delicious dinner they all, including little Kaye Pigg, motored on a sight-seeing tour to Buggs Island, Va. There they joined hundreds of other curiosity seekers on the Buggs Island Dam, which is a curiosity and a long way up in the air. Those looking for excitement should go there even though it's not yet completed. The wooded area around there has tables, seats, and other things to make picnicking a specialty for young and old.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Sealey and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Gay and Bill of Archer Lodge visited Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Privette and Mrs. Stanley Gay Friday night.

Mrs. Martha Weathers of near Rolesville is spending a few days with her mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Privette, during their illness. Mrs. W. E. Fuller, Millie, and Mr. Sanford Pearce visited with them early Saturday night.

Miss Millie Fuller visited Miss Peggy Mitchell of Wendell on Tuesday afternoon and night of last week. They motored to Raleigh in the afternoon and to the basketball game in the Wendell gym that night.

Mr. Harry Hinnant was a guest on the WPTF program "The Man on the Street," in Raleigh on Wednesday.

nesday of last week He complimented Lizard Lick by saying it was the garden spot of the world. This came out between the chatter wonder if he meant to say this or if it was scared out of him at the sight of the microphone.

To the many friends of Rct. Loomis M. Parrish, Jr., we are happy to say he has notified us that he gets a leave from his army post in December. If there is no other change in this, he plans to be here for Christmas. We know he wants to see and talk to his many friends in and around Zebulon and Wendell We hope he's here long enough to get around to the many places he desires to visit.
