

LIZARD LICK NEWS

It is more blessed to give than to receive. Acts 20:35.

Next Sunday night, December 17, there will be shown pictures of the "Christ's Birth" at Hephzibah by Mr. Lee Pridgen. Those interested be sure to come. This will be presented instead of a play as was once suggested.

Last Sunday's attendance was 187. It is good to keep this record. Do the wise thing: come to church and bring the children. All visitors are welcome at all services.

A mention has been made that on Sunday, January 7, there will be a talk on "Bible and Prayer." Even though it is a few Sundays away, it's a good time to think about it now. This is a first reminder of a revival in March. More will be said about this at a later date. Be thinking about this now.

The W. M. S. meets Friday at 2:30 p. m. in the Community Center.

Many are sick in the community so your pastor asks you to make all sick known to him. He would like to visit them.

Mr. F. V. Johnson is still sick in Mary Elizabeth Hospital at this time but is improving nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Privette are still very feeble. Mrs. Privette's injured back is still painful, but she is able to be up some. Mr. Privette's legs are still weak and trouble him very much in getting about, but he stays up most of the time.

Miss Fannie Mae Gay returned from her job to the home of her mother, Mrs. Stancey Gay, Monday, and is confined to her bed with a deep cold and a bronchial ailment.

Mr. Bertie Carter is suffering with an infected hand which heals very slowly.

Miss Crettie Lou Parrish has been on the sick list through last weekend and had to miss school the first of the week.

To these mentioned and to all others, God speed their recovery, and may good health soon come to them.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Mills of Raleigh spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Milton Dean.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fowler and Eleanor of the Tabernacle section called on Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Alford Sunday p. m.

Misses Jennie, Lillie, and Etta

Privette of Vaughan spent Sunday with their brother, Mr. Roger Privette. A surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. Privette by this visit, and a delicious dinner was prepared by Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Privette of Wendell and others. Even during the illness of Mr. and Mrs. Privette, they said, "We have already had Christmas early."

Other visitors during the weekend at Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Privette's were Mr. and Mrs. Grover Arnold from near Louisburg, Mrs. Page Perry, Mrs. Lennie Liles, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Privette and children, and Mrs. Martha Weathers.

Mr. John Wall and friend of Raleigh and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Fuller of Raleigh called on the W. E. Fullers on Thursday night of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis Price, Melba, and Ronald of Raleigh visited Mr. and Mrs. Dave Price last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fuller and Millie spent a few hours in Raleigh Monday. They visited Mr. F. V. Johnson at the hospital while there.

Many of our boys are being called into service and won't be home for Christmas as planned after all. Others have been there some time and may not be fortunate enough to get home. Let's remember them in some way. Perhaps a card, letter, or other means.

Miss Fannie Mae Gay spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Billy Gay of Archer Lodge section.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Ray and Kenneth and Miss Nellie Fuller of Zebulon called on Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Fuller for a short visit Monday night.
