

NO SERVICES

There will be no preaching service at the Zebulon Methodist Church on Sunday, April 29, because it is a fifth Sunday. The Rev. S. E. Mercer, pastor, is engaged in closing the revival services at the Wendell Methodist Church.

Pilot News

Our attendance at church Sunday was fine. We reached our goal, plus 49. Let's everyone come next Sunday and bring someone with you.

Our baptismal service was held Sunday night. The church was almost filled. We enjoyed having all of them in our new church.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Brooks Williams announce the birth of a daughter, Rhonda Brooks.

Hopkins Chapel

The G. A.'s and R. A.'s of Hopkins Chapel met at the church Monday night. They had good attendance. The G. A.'s are progressing very much under the leadership of Mary Frances Martin and Jimmie Lee Pearce. We appreciate their work so much. The R. A.'s are doing fine also under the leadership of our pastor. We appreciate his interest in these boys beyond expression.

We are sorry the following are on the sick list: Mrs. Roxie Bunn at Mary Elizabeth Hospital, Irvin Duke at Rex Hospital, Mrs. Chesley Mailey at home, Mr. Bud Jackson at home, Bonnie Perri is still at Veterans' Hospital, Fayetteville, but he has improved much and expects to be at home soon. Mrs. Annie Finch and Mr. Edd Baker are more feeble than usual.
