

LIZARD LICK NEWS

The attendance at Hephzibah was fine Sunday. It's still in the 200 mark in the Sunday School. It's worship hour every Sunday, too. Sometimes everyone gets poor in doing things. Like a wheelbarrow—no good unless we are pushed.

Remember the time of revival, the first Sunday in September. Keep this date in mind and pray about it continuously.

The Y. W. A. is to be congratulated on the fine work they are doing.

Keep in mind Homecoming and Harvest Day. Soon the time will be here. Prepare all your selections now for Harvest Day.

We have several on our sick list. Mrs. R. P. Privette fell at her home Saturday and injured herself.

Mr. R. P. Privette fell Sunday a.m. but was not injured very much.

Mrs. George Yancey is in Rex Hospital. She has been in ill health sometime but recently fell from her bed and fractured her hip.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayon Alford and children of the Corinth Holders section were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Alford on Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hervey Hamilton and children and Mr. and Mrs. Wayon Alford and children, all of the Corinth Holders section, were Sunday afternoon visitors of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Alford.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Johnson are moving into this community shortly from Wendell. We hope they enjoy their stay here. Since Mr. Johnson is in business here it will be much nearer his work. We welcome them in our midst as neighbors.

Miss Mary Harris of the Tabernacle section spent Sunday with Miss Ann Alford.

Mrs. Lily Creech and son, Roland of Philadelphia, Pa., arrived Wednesday of last week and left Monday. They visited her sister, Mrs. H. L. Hinnant, and others while here.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Wood accompanied Mr. Floyd V. Johnson to South Carolina for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Perry of near Rolesville called on the W. E. Fullers Monday night.

Many friends and relatives called to see Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Privette during the weekend. Among these were: Mrs. Martha Weathers of Rolesville, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Privette of Wendell, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Pearce, Mrs. Jimmy Wootten of Wendell and others.

The showers of rain during the weekend were a great blessing to the crops so much in need of rain.
