This, That and the Other

By Mrs. Theo. B. Davis

During the years we lived in Morehead City I knew little of other small towns along the coast. I did go to Marshallberg to help organize a missionary society and to Smyrna on a picnic trip, by boat of course. In those days there were few automobiles and still fewer country roads in that section that were passable for cars, so travel was mainly by boat.

Last week when my husband and I visited the Manly Wades in the cottage they had taken for two weeks at Morehead I did more traveling up and down the coast in two days than in the five years of residence.

Wednesday afternoon the Wades, with Mrs. John Bell, Mrs. Cattie Gillikin, Theo and me left Morehead at 4:30, going first to Beaufort. We went on through Lenoxville, Otway, Bettie, Smyrna, Marshallberg, Williston, Davis, Stacy and Gloucester, before crossing the bridge to Harker's Island where we had a picnic supper.

The towns I have listed are not large; but each has modern homes. It may sound odd to speak of ranch-type houses on the sea coast; but, if that's what the builders want, why not? White is the greatly preferred color for paint, and every lawn had grass, shrubs and flowers. Electricity and hard-surfaced roads have wrought won-

Teen-Age Party Plan To Be Aided by Gift From Commerce Unit

Help in carrying out its program of Saturday night recreation for Teenagers was pledged the Zebulon Woman's Club by the Zebulon Chamber of Commerce at the scheduled meeting of the Board of Directors held this week. The Directors voted unanimously to give the Woman's Club $100.00 to be used by them exclusively for the Teenage program.

Other business conducted by the Directors included calling for the election of new officers. A mail primary will be held to determine nominees, and the regular election will be held at a membership meeting.

Thomas Announces Flood Relief Drive By Wake Red Cross

Final plans for bringing before Wake County citizens the urgent need for contributions to flood victims in four mid-west states have been completed and the Wake County Red Cross chapter is conducting a drive for funds for flood relief, according to Dr. Ben Thomas, who heads the local campaign. Henry Bridges, state auditor and former Zebulon resident, heads the special Red Cross flood relief committee as chairman.

To meet President Truman's appeal for a $5,000,000 flood relief fund to be donated through local chapters of the Red Cross, the Wake County group is making a public appeal through the press and radio.

No Big Campaign

Dr. Thomas said that he plans no high-pressure campaign in this community, but that boxes to receive donations have been placed in Zebulon. They will be left out until Tuesday when the local drive will end.

Over 183,188 families have been affected by the floods, including more than 5,000 in Kansas City alone who have applied for Red Cross assistance. The Red Cross has already served more than 1,000,000 meals in the affected area.

Local Garden Club To Become State Unit

Plans are being held for the organization of a Zebulon Garden Club to be federated this fall in connection with the Junior and Senior Woman's Clubs. Mrs. Carsey Tippett will be the new president.

It is hoped that all club members will join the garden club.

The program has been well worked out and every person interested in the beautification of her home and grounds will derive a great deal of benefit, both civic and social.

Contact Mrs. Charles Flowers for membership.

H. D. Club Meets

The Wakefield Home Demonstration Club had its regular meeting at the club house on Wednesday, July 25, at 3 o'clock. Plans were made to attend the Farmer's Convention at North Carolina State College, on Wednesday, August 1.

Methodist Church Items

There will be no preaching service at the Zebulon Methodist Church on Sunday, July 29, as it is a fifth Sunday and there is no regularly scheduled appointment. Rev. S. E. Mercer has improved sufficiently to preach on the past two Sunday mornings and plans to assume his full morning and night schedule at both Zebulon and Wendell Methodist Churches beginning Sunday, August 5.

On Thursday night, July 12, 1951, at the Middlesex high school, the Winawa Sub-district held its monthly meeting with over one hundred members present.

Having charge of the program, the Middlesex MYF marched in singing "Love's Old Sweet Song." A cordial welcome was extended to everyone by Mrs. Beulah Thompson. The remainder of the program was as follows: an anthem by the choir; invocation by Reverend T. H. House; two hymns, "Day is Dying in the West" and "Dear Lord and Father of Mankind," by the congregation; a poem, "To Every Man There Openeth," recited by Ann Floras; "The Touch of the Master's Hand," a poem told by Rose Manning; the story of "The Angelus" by Wilma Joyce Morris.

Then Clara Lou Stott of Bailey, Winawa president, took charge of the business session. She read a letter to the Winawa from Rev. S. E. Mercer, thanking all for the courtesies extended to him during his illness.

After that, everyone agreed to have a picnic at Lake Mirl at 6:00 o'clock p. m., on August 28.
