

LIZARD LICK NEWS

Attendance at Hephzibah last Sunday was 203. It was well that those came out to the house of the Lord to worship even if it is a busy time.

Miss Lila Anderson gave the flowers for the church altar last Sunday. They were a large, beautiful arrangement of gladioli and were greatly appreciated.

A reminder to come for services every Sunday morning, Sunday School at 10:00, preaching at 11:00, and Training Union at 7:00 and a message at 8:00 p. m.

Mrs. George Yancey returned home from the hospital Saturday and is much improved.

Mrs. Roger Privette is able to be up and out again and is improving slowly. Mr. Privette is some better but still remains feeble.

Mr. Hubert Liles is still in Rex Hospital but is some better at this time. If all goes well he plans to return home this week.

Mr. B. J. Wiggs is receiving doctor's care but is able to be out and working some.

The Sunday afternoon visitors of the W. E. Fullers were: Mr. and Mrs. Sexton Alford and children of the Tabernacle section, Mrs. Stacy Gay and Miss Anna Laura Hobgood.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Arnold and Voncile of near Louisburg and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Privette and children of Wendell visited Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Privette Sunday. Mrs. Martha Weathers has been visiting with them during the past week and taking care of them during their illness.

Miss Crettie Creech Parrish spent Friday night with Miss Millie Fuller.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Ray and children and Miss Nellie Fuller of Zebulon called on the W. E. Fullers Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Valton Alford and children of Eagle Rock visited Mr. and Mrs. James Honeycutt Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Will and children of Patterson, N. J., are still visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Wiggs. They plan to return home about Friday of this week.

Mrs. Milton Mincey was taken ill Monday with nerves.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murray and children of near Rolesville visited the W. L. Gays Sunday.

Mrs. Ernest Parrish and children and Miss Josephine Gay visited Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Carter of Zebulon Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Johnson are getting ready to move in this community shortly. Perhaps they will get moved this week.

We express our sympathy to Mrs. H. L. Hinnant and other members of the family of Mrs. Elbert Whitley who passed away at her home near Knightdale Tuesday. She had been in ill health for some time.

Mrs. Alton Alford and Mrs. Carlton Alford of Wendell called to see Mrs. Milton Mincey a short while Monday night.

Thursday night of last week many in this and surrounding sections had much damage done to their tobacco and other crops by the high winds. Some tobacco and corn was blown to the ground. We are very fortunate in not getting hail along with the winds as some did.

Our congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wall and their new son.

—Polly Fuller
