The 23 persons examined consisted of: four white men, 19 white women.

Persons examined represented Rocky Mount and outlying areas, Tarboro, Bailey, Spring Hope, Zebulon, Robersonville, Battleboro and Nashville.

In order that those who live at a distance may be sure of an examination when they come to the clinic and thus not make a trip in

Garden Club Plans Made for Year; Open House Set

On Tuesday evening, October 9, at eight o'clock, the Junior and Senior Woman's Clubs will be hostesses at an open house at the local clubhouse honoring the new members of the recently organized Zebulon Garden Club and guest speakers, who are prominent in garden club work. Cards have been mailed to those who are prospective members.

At an executive board meeting Monday night at the home of Mrs. Charles Flowers plans were discussed for the coming year.

Programs Planned

The programs have been tentatively mapped out, with each one having to do with the garden work and activities appropriate to the month. Among the things planned are a flower show, a flower and shrub exchange, and programs on bulbs, roses, rooting and transplanting.

At present 35 members are enrolled in the club, but with dues only a dollar a year, the club hopes soon to take in every woman in the community. A prerequisite is that members of the garden club be members of one of the two woman's clubs.

Time of the meetings will be decided at the open house.

Common Interest

Officers of the Garden Club feel that it will bring together women of all ages in a common interest working not only for the beautification of their own homes and yards but for the development of the whole community.

Officers of the club are Mrs. Carsey Tippet, president, Mrs. Durham Moore, vice president, and Mrs. Elwood Perry, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Ferd Davis is in charge of publicity.

Present at the board meeting in addition to the above were Mrs. A. S. Hinton, Mrs. James Alford, Mrs. R. H. Herring and the hostess.

FIDELIS CLASS

The Bessie Davis Fidelis Class will hold its first meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. Howard Beck Monday night. All members are urged to attend.

Dancing Pupils of Mrs. H. C. Wade Wins Lions Club Talent Night Show

Dancing pupils of Mrs. H. C. Wade won top honors in the first Talent Night competition sponsored by the Zebulon Lions Club. The dancers, Dottie Privett, Janet Upchurch, Ginnie Watkins, Peggy Greene, and Carolyn Hinton, are now eligible for the grand prizes to be awarded after the final competition to be held November 3.

Close behind in second was Ginnie Wicker and Her Band. The Murray Trio, composed of Elizabeth Murray and her brothers, took third. The second and third place winners are both eligible for the grand prizes.

Proceeds from the talent night programs will be used to help the classes for handicapped children at Wakelon School.

Honorable mention last Saturday night was accorded Mickey Hinton, Sue Alford, and Ginnie Wicker, soloist.

Featured performers tomorrow night will be Sexton Johnson and His Band; the Gospel Quartet from Middlesex; the Family Trio, composed of Bobby Duke, Melba Baker, and Wallace Baker; Sue Foster, noted torch singer from Selma;

Nettie and Lettie, duet; Sue Alford, Mickey Hinton, Faye Privett, and several other accomplished performers. The Murray Trio will return to the program as guest performers.
