Recreation Pledge By Rebel Party Wins Big Victory

The Rebel Party, promising a recreation center for Zebulon, swept into power at Wakelon School on Tuesday, capturing all seven offices at stake from the opposing Confederate Party. A total of 143 ballots were cast in the spirited election, which climaxed two weeks of intensive campaigning and a party primary conducted the previous week.

Local Youth Day

Mayor Worth Hinton congratulated the winners in the election. He set aside Wednesday, April 16, as Youth Day in Zebulon. On this day the newly elected Mayor and commissioners will take over all town offices and run the municipal government.

The youth commissioners are Leroy Trevathan, who led the ticket with 100 votes, Elton Chamberlee, 93; Betty Lou Bunn, 85; Glenn Perry, 84; Jean Robertson, 84; and Billy Massey, 69.

Gurley, Route 2, Wendell, and Dallas Gurley, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Gurley, Route 2, Wendell, took the oath as members of the National Guard last week, joining Battery A, Zebulon's field artillery unit. Both Gurleys, who are cousins, were assigned to Sfc. Percy Parrish's mess section to be trained as cooks.

Lt. Col. Arthur C. Ball, Regular Army instructor, was a visitor at the drill this week. Following the second hour of training, he commended the non-commissioned officers on the improvement made in the local battery since last year.

Missed by One

The colonel reminded the men in Battery A that the local unit failed by only one point being the top battery at Ft. McClellan last summer. Battery B, located at Dunn, was tops during summer training. It will be awarded the Third Army Training Trophy on April 28.

Added attention is being devoted to attendance. In March Battery A had an attendance percentage of over 94 percent, but the unit was still low for the 113th Battalion. Youngsville, with an average of 99.59 percent, was top battery.

For the first three months of 1952 the 113th Battalion has achieved the best attendance percentage of any similar unit in the North Carolina National Guard.
