Union Chapel News

We are proud of Union Chapel because every Sunday our attendance is gaining. I have the same opinion as Mrs. Vera. There are enough people in this little community to over run Union Chapel. I wish I could see it just that way one time. Let's hope and pray that we will be fore too long.

I'm sure everyone enjoyed the wonderful inspiring sedmon which Rev. Marvin Lewis of Ohio brought to us. He is a wonderful preacher.

Union Chapel extends much sympathy to the grieved family of little Curtis Edwards who passed last Saturday night. God gives us our loved ones for only a short time here on earth. These things we can't understand.

Mr. Sterling Mitchell visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Raybon last Saturday night.

Weekend visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cordie Ferrell were Mr. and Mrs. Perry Lee Carlyle, Mr. and Mrs. Williford Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Lee Denton and children, Mrs. Joe Cunningham and children and Mr. Bennie Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Horton, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Beddings and Mr. Ferns Richards were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Buck Richards on Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. Marvin Lewis and daughter of Ohio are spending the week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Richards of near Wakefield.

Messrs. Jack, Franklin, Lloyd Creech all went Monday to help Mr. Claude Parrish break all of his farm land. Mr. Parrish has been sick and is not able to work. Mr. and Mrs. Heber Creech and Mrs. Clem Creech went along. Mr. Parrish is the brother of Mrs. C. Creech.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Mitchell and Carolyn and Rev. and Mrs. Marvin Lewis and daughter of Ohio were visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Buck Richards last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Raybon and daughter of Pilot and Mr. and Mrs. Mayon Duke and daughter of Hopkins Chapel were visitors in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse L. Raybon of Youngsville, Rt. 1, last Sunday.

Messrs. Bobby Lee Dent and Jim Denton of near Youngsville visited in the home of their uncle last Sunday, Mr. Sam Denton, near Wendell.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Tant of Raleigh and Miss Rachel Denton of Louisburg spent the weekend with their mother, Mrs. Bill Denton of near Youngsville. Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Vance Lee Denton and children visited here.

Mrs. Julian Mitchell and children, Mrs. Frank V. Hood and Virginia Hood visited in the Veterans' Hospital in Fayetteville with Messrs. Julian Mitchell and Frank Hood.

Miss Nellie Medlin spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Medlin of near Wakefield.

Those who have been sick are Mrs. Cordie Ferrell, Mrs. Jack Creech, Mrs. Baxter Richards and Mr. Vance Lee Denton.

Mrs. Edgar Harris fell at Clifton's Pond last week while fishing and bruising her body. She was redecorating her home at the time of her accident and her children are finishing it for her.

Mrs. William Jones and Mrs. Buck Richards visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Richards at Hopkins Cross Roads Monday afternoon.

Miss Alicia Richards of 401 Bayside Drive, Baltimore, Md., celebrated her 13th birthday Sunday.

Mrs. Joe Cunningham visited in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Harris Tuesday afternoon.

Tabernacle Happenings

The attendance last Sunday was 199, a few short of the 211 on the previous Sunday. Next Sunday being Easter, we know more will be out, but don't forget the church needs you every Sunday and you need your church.

An average of 5 or 6 represented the Tabernacle at the teachers and officers' study course at Corinth last week. An average of about 50 from all churches attended each night. Mr. J. T. Smith of White Oak was principal speaker and Mr. Leonard Wilder of Corinth assisted him. The regular attending ministers were Rev. A. D. Parrish and Rev. W. W. Turner. Rev. J. H. Mauney, Associational Missionary visited Thursday night and made a picture of the attending group. The examinations on Friday night were successful. Fellowship and cooperation were splendid through the week and a great work was accomplished. Many thanks to the Corinth Church and pastor for kindness shown and welcoming invitations to visit them again in the future. Thank also to the ladies of the community who prepared refreshments on Wednesday night.

Mr. Cleandon Wood came under the watch care of the Church Sunday night, awaiting a letter from Bethany Church in Johnston County to unite with this church.

Mrs. Cleandon Wood became a member of the Sunday School. A hearty welcome to them both.

Appreciation is expressed to Mrs. Mildred Richardson for supplying as teacher of the Young Men's Class last Sunday. She turned her class over to the assistant teacher.
