THE ZEBULON RECORD

Volume XXVII. Number 56.

Zebulon, N. C., Friday, April 18, 1952

Theo. Davis Sons, Publishers.

LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS SEE CAPITAL SIGHTS ON TRIP TAKEN LAST WEEK

Shown in front of the National Capital in Washington Bobby Murray, Lawrence Liles, Billy Hugh Bunn, and are members of the graduating class at Wakelon School, Bobby Gill. taking time out during their tour of the city last week. Moss, Henry Kitchings, Bobby McGee, Charles Finch, Oakley, and Shirley Faulkner.

The trip to Washington is an annual event for Wake- Barbara Denton, Jeanne Robertson, Jean Richardson, Linda Bridgers, Agriculture Teacher Ed Ellington, Senior lon senior classes. Pictured are, sitting, Ben Allen Rhodes, Ann Allman, Rena Moody, Kathryn Baker, Rose Pace, Advisor Doris Privett, Gloria Pearce, Doris Duke, Willa Wayne Massey, Ronald Fowler, George Crowder, Ned Rose Holland, Melba Baker, Artelia Bailey, Margaret Bolton, Geraldine Hood, Norma Faye Bridges, Donald

Third row, standing, are Bobby Perry, Carlton Blackley, Betty Lou Bunn, Mary Spivey, Joyce Young, Second row, kneeling, are Inez Pearce, Frances Bunn, Patsy Brantley, Betty Jean Phillips, Ernestine Corbett, Fowler, and Elton Chamblee.

Wakelon Minstrel Is Ready for Audience; Wedding Is Planned

Hilliard Greene and Barrie Davidual numbers.

Mrs. Nellie Kemp, doing a song, by the Zebulon Rotary Club. strut, and dance number as Sweet Georgia Brown.

Greene, Betty Sue Williams, Hazel ren, and Orange. Ihrie, Kay Baker, Bernice Edwards, Sue Alford and Bruce Wood, will sing "Kentucky Bay."

Song and Dance

feature Peggy Greene, and W. A. for a visit to the United Nations. Allman and Mrs. Virginia Wood With her will go her forensics will show the intricate steps of the coach, Miss Marie Smithwich, Charleston Rag.

W. A. Allman will return to deliver a sermon as the colored Oriole of the South.

Ethel Waters, portrayed by tal- sional delegation. (Continued on Page 5)

Juanna Joy Mitchell Is Top Orator

A full house is expected tonight | Mitchell, was acclaimed first place ents, and expressed great pride in | quiet of our world has been disfor the star-studded Minstrel Va- winner in the runoff forensic con- the forensics program at Wakelon, turbed by wars - not petty wars at her home on Zebulon Route 3. rieties to be presented in the test held in the Hugh Morson High which has been omitted from the between backward, unimportant or Sunday afternoon, after a long ill-Wakelon auditorium by the Par- School auditorium in Raleigh Mon- curricular for several years. ent-Teacher Association. The two- day night. She spoke on "Building part program will feature special World Peace: What Is the Responblack-face talent and a play, plus sibility of the United States in the three numbers between the scenes. Light of Communist Aggression?"

The runoff contest was held vis will serve as MC's for the va- among preliminary winners of the riety show, introducing the indi- World Peace Study and Speaking Program Contest. Juanna Joy won First of the variety acts will be at Wakelon in a contest sponsored

The runoff contest included entrants from six counties: Wake, The Glamorettes, including Fan Johnston, Vance, Franklin, War-

New York Trip

The Wakelon student, along with winners of 12 other speaking contests in the State, will be awarded A song and dance number will an expense-paid trip to New York whose expenses also will be paid. On the return trip, the students will stop at Washington and call on the North Carolina Congres-

Principal W. R. Whittenton of begins in the next column:

Miss Juanna Joy Mitchell, Wakelon School warmly congrat- Twice within the first half of Tuesday Afternoon daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack ulated Juanna Joy and her par- the present century the calm and ers in our world.

Juanna Joy Mitchell

all. Less than a quarter of a cen- ity. tury elapsed, however, before the ist? No, for even now a third world Rt. 3. war threatens.

No Peace from War

We should begin to realize that peace can never be achieved Die on Wednesday through war. We must desire peace so earnestly that we shall strive to encourage and build peace.

The position of the United are one of the major countries of Georgia. The full text of the winning the world. Our democratic gov-

(Continued on Page 6)

Final Rites Are Held For Mrs. B. Pearce

Mrs. Beatrice Pearce, 52, died uncivilized nations, but world wars ness. Funeral services were held among nations who are supposed- Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at the ly civilized and who are the pow- Pilot Baptist Church with the Rev. M. A. Pegram and Rev. A. S. Lamm The first world war was fought officiating. Burial was in the famto end wars — to bring peace to ily cemetery in the Pilot commun-

Surviving are her nusband, clouds rose again — even Claude E. Pearce, a son, Lt. C. E. greater war clouds than those that Pearce, Jr., USN, a daughter, marked the first world war. This Jane Pearce of the home, a sissecond world war would surely ter, Esther Varyas of Park Ridge, bring peace, thought the states- N. J., five brothers, Claude, Clyde, men of the nations. That cruel war Carl and Clellan Pearce of Zebuhas ended, but does peace yet ex- lon, Rt. 2, and Cyprus of Clinton,

Pittman, Mrs. Burris

Mrs. Mattie Burris, mother of Mrs. Paul Brown, died Wednesday night after a lingering illness. The States is an important one. We funeral will be held Friday in

Ray Pittman, nephew of Mrs. speech, written by Juanna Joy, ernment stands for all those ideals Falc Bunn, died Wednesday of