

MRS. POLLY FULLER

Tabernacle Happenings

Vacation Bible School commencement exercises were Sunday night beginning at 8 o'clock. Each department gave a short program and show its projects. The record for the week was: average attendance, 115; largest attendance was on Thursday night, 132; total enrollment, 136; offering, $37.83. Much was accomplished and many thanks to all who helped to make it such a success. It was a wonderful experience for me as principal.

Prayer meeting was Tuesday night of this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Harris. Pastor S. G. Stevens requested prayer for rain and if the rains did come prayer of thanks would still be offered.

All weekly services will go back to their regular schedule this week. Fellowship meeting is Thursday night.

Remember the W. M. U. meeting Wednesday night of next week at 8:00 in the assembly room at the church.

Mrs. Katy Alle is still very sick and shows no improvement.

Mrs. Ruben Batten grew worse Saturday and a doctor was called.

Little Steve Driver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Driver, spent a couple of days last week in Rex Hospital. He's home and improving now.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Wood of Elizabeth City were guests of the Raymond Wood's during the weekend.

Mrs. Pervis Richardson and children are visiting with relatives in Philadelphia, Penna.

Mrs. J. W. Wood filled the place as teacher of the Young Ladies' Class last Sunday. This was a new experience for her and was well done. Many thanks to her.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Culp have had as their house guests for the past week relatives from Philadelphia.

WILDER-FOWLER WEDDING

Miss Eleanor Frances Fowler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Fowler and Mr. David Wilder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wilder, were united in matrimony Saturday night at 8:00 in the Tabernacle Church.

The vows were spoken before a white candle-lighted altar to the Rev. S. G. Stevens. White glad- ioli and baby's breath in green fernery decorated the altar. White lighted candles, green fern, and satin ribbon were along the win- dows and the aisle leading to the altar.

The bride entered, attended by a brother-in-law, Claude Watson, who gave her away.

The bridegroom's father was best man.

Mrs. Claude Watson, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Katie Sue Hocutt and Miss Vera Joy Wilder.

Wedding music was presented by Miss Ava Jean Hinnant, pianist, and Mr. Ronald Hocutt, soloist.

Ushers were Hugh Wilder, cousin of the bridegroom, and Rudolph Moody, cousin of the bride.

Little Frances Hinnant was flower girl and her little brother, Cecil, was ring bearer. They were cousins of the bridegroom.

The bride and bridegroom were graduates of Corinth Holders High School.

children remained for a few more days.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hill and children of Raleigh were callers of the M. B. Alfords and W. E. Fullers Saturday.

Mrs. P. W. Wood is confined to her bed with a bad case of mad itch, the result of a lock-jaw shot given when she stuck a nail in her foot. Monday of this week she suffered wasp stings which aggra- vated her condition.

The Home Demonstration Club met Wednesday night of this week at the home of Mrs. Bridgers in Wendell.

Mrs. F. V. Johnson was given a stork shower in her home Wednes- day night with Mrs. Julian John- son, Mrs. G. M. Johnson, and Mrs. Marvin Johnson as hostesses.

Miss Joyce Atkinson of Kenly is guest of Miss Sally Ann Wood for a few days.

Mr. Charles Wood, Sally Ann Wood, and several others spent a couple of days last week at Wrightsville Beach.

Many attended the parade and other activities in Wendell last Friday.

It please us to learn one of our community girls won the title of Miss Wendell in the Friday activi- ties. Congratulations to Miss Shirley Hinnant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hinnant.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Alford and Ann called at the E. B. Parrishes Tuesday night.
