Garden Club Changes Name, Honoring Founder

In its first meeting of the new year the Zebulon Garden Club heard a talk on seeding and care of lawns by Ed Ellington, after which questions were put to the speaker by the members. Much information was gained and Mr. Ellington invited the members to ask his assistance if further information were needed.

Following Mr. Ellington's talk, Mrs. Carsey Tippet presided at a business meeting.

Unanimous Vote

All the members present voted to change the name of the club from the Zebulon Garden Club to the Carmen Flowers Garden Club, in memory of the late Mrs. Flowers who was responsible for the reorganization of the club.

Mrs. J. K. Barrow and Mrs. E. C. Daniel were hostesses for the evening, and served delicious refreshments of cocoa, nuts, cheese wafers and sandwiches.

Rocky Mount Cancer Clinic Offers Check To Public; No Charge

Eighteen persons were examined in the Cancer Detection and Diagnostic Clinics yesterday, when the clinics were held for the 111th time by physicians of Edgecombe and Nash Counties.

These clinics are held each Wednesday at 12:00 o'clock at the Municipal Building in Rocky Mount, and they are open only to persons forty years of age, and older, regardless of race or ability to pay.

The 18 persons examined consisted of: one white man, 14 white women, and three colored women. Only three of the examinees had been referred to the clinic by a physician.

Zebulon Patients

Persons examined represented Rocky Mount and outlying areas, Scotland Neck, Elm City, Winterville, Wilson, Zebulon, Eagle Rock, Castalia, Louisburg and Whitakers.

In order that those who live at a distance may be sure of an examination when they come to the clinic and thus not make a trip in vain, priorities will be issued on requests for these priorities should be addressed to: Cancer Control Center, Municipal Building, Rocky Mount, N. C.

Permanent Basis

These clinics are operated by the Edgecombe-Nash Medical Society, in cooperation with the State Board of Health, and the local chapter of the American Cancer Society. They are being operated on a nonpermanent basis as an educational feature and public service. While on this basis, there is no charge to anyone.

The Detection Clinic, although open to anyone, is primarily for service to the local public; but the Diagnostic Clinic is designed to service the population of North-eastern North Carolina.

Junior Club to Meet

The Junior Woman's Club will hold its first meeting of the fall on Tuesday night, September 16, at 8:45 o'clock. The late hour is being set to avoid conflict with the revival being held at the Baptist Church, Mrs. Norman S. Screws, president, announced.

Mrs. Theo B. Davis will be the speaker for the occasion.

Baptist Revival to Begin Sunday; State Mission Program Planned

Revival Services will be held at the local Baptist Church each evening during the coming week with the pastor preaching. The services begin Sunday with the morning theme, "The Need of Our Hour" and the evening theme "On Being Unashamed of One's Work."

The music will be led by the church choir. On Sunday morning the choir will offer the anthem, "My God and I" and Mrs. L. M. Massey will sing "Hear My Cry, O Lord" by Wooler. On Sunday evening the choir will sing "O God Our Help in Ages Past."

Church Activities

Emphasis will be placed on the ministry of the church activities. On Monday evening the Training Union members will be recognized. Monday evening the W. M. U. circles and auxiliaries will be recognized along with the men present to form a Brotherhood. On Tuesday evening the various church districts will receive attention. Wednesday night is Sunday School Night with classes and departments leading. Thursday will be Family Night and a service on dedication will be held on Friday evening.

* All are invited to attend the services.

State Missions

A special program for State Missions will be held Monday, September 15, at 3:30 in the Zebulon Baptist Church.

Discussion will be in the form of a playlet emphasizing the progress of missions in North Carolina for the past twenty years.

This meeting will take the place of all circle meetings for the month. It is hoped that every circle member will make every effort to be present.

Famous Clown Here

Lions Meet, Plan Ladies' Night

One of the most entertaining programs of the year was staged for the Zebulon Lions Club Thursday night when Herman Joseph of Goldsboro, for years a top clown with big circuses, gave a performance and played the accordion. After a 25-minute talk, the famed performer played request numbers on his $1,100 instrument.

The speaker was introduced by Jerry Buffalo, who was program co-chairman with Frank Kemp.

Joseph has been with Ringling Brothers, Barnum & Baily Circus for 22 years, and during his fabulous career has worked with Buffalo Bill Wild West Show, Tom Mix, Tim McCoy, and Will Rogers.

Other guests included Miss Carolyn Hinton, pianist and Johnny Tant, who sold nearly 100 tickets to the Lions All Night Sing which was staged Saturday night.

The Lions Ladies Night was set for Thursday, September 18, in the Recreation Room of the Methodist Church. Louis Day, International Counselor of Lions International, will be the speaker.

Two Local Men Serve in Korea

Pfc. Marvin M. Pleasant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton M. Pleasant, Route 1, Wendell, has been awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge while serving with the 25th Infantry Division in Korea.

The badge is a symbol of the frontline fighting man. It consists of a miniature Revolutionary War rifle mounted on a blue rectangle with a silver wreath.

A jeep driver with 35th Infantry Regiment Headquarters, Pleasant entered the Army in June, 1951, and arrived in Korea last February.

Visits Japan

Sergeant First Class Braxton L. Jones, Zebulon, recently spent a five-day vacation from Korea on a rest and recuperation leave in Japan.

A member of the 25th Infantry Division, he stayed in one of the finest hotels in Japan and enjoyed many luxuries unobtainable in Korea.

Traffic Ordinance Passed by Board At Monday Term

The problem of speeding within the city limits of Zebulon faced the members of the Town of Zebulon Board of Commissioners at their September meeting held Monday night, and the Board ordered that the 35 mile per hour speed limit in the town be enforced on all streets. The State Highway Patrol was asked to cooperate with municipal authorities.

The motion to end speeding was made by Raleigh Alford and seconded by Philip Massey. It met unanimous approval.

Present at the meeting were Mayor Worth Hinton, Commissioners R. Vance Brown, Wesley Liles, Philip Massey, Howard Beck and Raleigh Alford. Also present were Clerk W. B. Hopkins and Town Attorney A. R. House.

Crowder Gets Raise

Night policeman M. G. Crowder's salary was raised by $25.00 a month by the Board of Commissioners.

The paving stones on Arendell and Gannon Avenues beside Irby Gill's property will have to be replaced or else a drive will have to be paved, according to requirements incorporated in a motion by R. Vance Brown and seconded by Wesley Liles. The motion stated that the stones were removed without permission of the town and that water is running from the street to the sidewalk.

Armory Site

Immediate action on purchasing a lot for the proposed armory for the National Guard unit was promised by the Commissioners to Capt. Barrie Davis, commander of the Zebulon battery, who brought a letter of Major General John Hall Manning listing the procedure to be used in making the deed for the land to the State of North Carolina.

Action on acquiring the lot has been delayed by legal difficulties, but Mayor Worth Hinton states the purchase will be completed in the near future.

State to Get Deed

Before any action can be taken by the Adjutant General's Department to have an armory built in Zebulon, the State of North Carolina must have the deed to suitable property where the armory is to be constructed.

Huge Still Captured Here by ABC Agents

A 500-gallon capacity submarine-type liquor still was seized and one alleged operator caught at the site about five miles north of here in Little River Township Wednesday by Wake County ABC officers.

Arrested was Clemmon Davis, Negro, about 40, of Louisburg, whose bond was set at $200 for his appearance in the local Recorder's Court for trial on charges of bootlegging.

The officers raided the still about 12:30 p. m., and reported that they found 42 barrels of fermented mash ready to be run. Approximately 2,000 gallons of mash were in the vats, it was stated.

Making the raid were J. H. Brown, chief of the Wake ABC law enforcement division, and Officers David Perry and Floyd Johnson.
