Yes indeed, November 1 is fast approaching . . . the deadline for the 148 towns participating in the Finer Carolina Contest. Which town will be Carolina's Finest? Will it be yours? All of the towns entered in the contest have made good progress, in fact, many projects have already been completed. If your town's projects are still incomplete, there is still one month in which to finish the job. Now is the time for all good citizens to rally to the call of civic duty. You still have time in which to help make YOUR town CAROLINA'S FINEST.
