THESE BEAUTIES HAVE BRAINS

Top academic honors at Corinth Holders School for the graduating class were awarded this year to the lovely ladies pictured. Miss Katie Duke Hocutt, left, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edd Hocutt of Route 1, was named salutatorian; and Miss Dorothy Jean Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Price of Route 1, Selma, was named valedictorian. Miss Hocutt is the Corinth correspondent for the Zebulon Record.

Music Lovers Will Welcome Lions' All Night Sing, Scheduled June 20

Singing fans will be glad to hear that the Zebulon Lions Club is preparing another All Night Sing to be presented in the Wakelon auditorium Saturday night, June 20, to raise money for the benefit of Wake County blind people.

Ten song groups are already on the program, including some of the top quartets in the state.

The curtain will part at 8 o'clock for the long program, which will feature the following quartets: The Carolinians of Asheboro; Live Oak Quartet of Selma; Ambassadors of Winston-Salem; Baker of Hopkins Chapel; Wakelonettes of Zebulon; and the Broadridge of Lumberton.

Scientific Display Is Seen This Week

"Never before will Wake County farm families have been offered the opportunity to witness such an array of scientific demonstrations with a practical application as at the 1953 Farm and Home Week," Fred S. Sloan, secretary of the Farmer's Convention, declared yesterday.

"Before, Sloan said, "Farm and Home Week was held the last of August, right at harvest time. The program this year is such that no farm family will want to miss it. Never before and perhaps never again will Wake County's rural people have the opportunity to see

New Recreation Director Named For Community

William R. Alheim, native of Schenectady, New York, has been appointed director of the recreation program for this summer, according to Ralph Talton, chairman of the Zebulon Recreation Commission. Alheim will be in charge of both the afternoon and evening program, arranging for supervised play and the softball competition.

Alheim entered Wake Forest College in September 1949, on an athletic scholarship. He graduated with a B. S. degree in health, physical education, and recreation this month.

While at Wake Forest, he was a member of the varsity basketball team for three years, and of the varsity baseball team for two years. He was active in Sigma Chi Fraternity and the Monogram Club.

For two years he served as an assistant Recreation Director in Schenectady, N. Y., and last summer was swimming instructor at Wake Forest.

Body Temperature Is Discussed at Rotary

Interesting facts and figures about body temperature were brought to the attention of the Zebulon Rotarians by Dr. Ben Thomas last Friday night. He began by giving the normal body temperature, and then explained the things which disturb the temperature causing fever and chills.

At the close of his talk, a quarter-hour question-and-answer period was conducted, with the doctor giving quite a bit of free medical advice to his fellow Rotarians.

Things which disturb the regular body temperature are fever, sunstroke, and heat stroke, Ben reported. Fever is caused by infection, operations, injuries to the brain, and dehydration of the body.

The values of being able to raise and lower body temperature were told, by lowering the body temperature to 60 degrees, operations on the heart are made possible which would be fatal under normal conditions.

Melvin Massey was elected a director of the club to take office July 1 to fill the unexpired term of G. C. Massey, who was recently elected vice-president of the club.

Visitors included Lt. Col. Arthur Ball, president of the Louisburg Rotary Club, Asher Johnson, Jr., editor of the Franklin Times, and Ted Davis of Kinston.

Walter E. Hales Receives Promotion

Walter E. Hales, whose wife, Barbara, lives in Spring Hope, N. C., was recently promoted to corporal while serving with the 3rd Infantry Division in Korea.

The 3rd Division has participated in many of the bloody battles of the Korean conflict, including White Horse, Jackson Heights and Kelly Hill.

Corporal Hales, a member of the 15th Infantry Regiment, entered the Army in December, 1951, and received basic training at Fort Knox, Ky. He arrived in Korea last December.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hales, Middlesex, N. C., he was a dairy inspector for Pet Dairy, Greensboro, in civilian life.

SUPERVISOR

William A. Alheim

Appointed director of the Zebulon summer recreation program, Alheim is a 1953 graduate of Wake Forest College with a B. S. degree.

Guardsmen Make Camp Preparations

Final preparations for the trip to Ft. McClellan, Ala., were made last night by Zebulon's National Guard unit, and all the equipment and supplies will be loaded Thursday night for the motor convoy, which leaves next Sunday morning at 5:15.

Section chiefs listed all the equipment which will be taken, and last minute modifications were made on the communications equipment.

Forty-nine enlisted men and five officers will attend summer camp this year with Battery A, a part of the famed 113th Field Artillery Battalion, which is commanded by Lt. Col. Edward Yarbrough of Louisburg.

A unique system of convoy control will be employed this year. Lt. Bill Griffin, formerly of Zebulon, will fly the battalion liaison plane over the convoy during the entire trip, assisting in controlling the march units by radio. The convoy will stretch over nearly 15 miles.

Sgt. Cooper Moss last night checked all the vehicles which will go to Ft. McClellan, including six 2½-ton trucks, three jeeps, and two three-quarter ton trucks.

Directors to Be Named at C of C Meet June 29

A membership meeting of the Zebulon Chamber of Commerce will be held Monday night, June 29, the Board of Directors decided at their regular meeting held in Peoples Bank last Thursday evening. Prior to the membership meeting, nominees for a three-year term on the Board of Directors will be selected through a direct mail primary.

President Ed Hales was in charge of the meeting last week, and five of the incumbent directors were present.

Printed Ballots

Printed ballots listing the names of all Chamber of Commerce members will be mailed next week, to be marked and returned to the Secretary of the organization by June 27.

The four members receiving the highest number of votes will be nominees for the office of Director, and at the membership meeting another vote will be taken to elect two of the four nominees to office.

A president of the Chamber of Commerce will be chosen at the membership meeting before the election of directors is held. Nominations for president are made from the floor.

Although the president of the Chamber of Commerce is eligible to succeed himself, President Hales said one year is enough for him.

Prepare for Santa

Pat Farmer was appointed to check on the purchase of a Santa Claus suit for use next Christmas. Thurman Hepler urged that a suit be brought now, because, he said, "Christmas will be on us before we know it."

Present at the meeting were President Ed Hales, Secretary R. Vance Brown, and Directors Thurman Hepler, Ralph Talton, W. B. Hopkins, Thomas Monk, and Pat Farmer.

Methodist V.B.S.

Methodist Vacation Bible School began Sunday, June 7, with a good enrollment. All who are interested are invited and all are looking forward to a profitable week.
