REFRESHING DESSERT

You need a surprise dessert for your family's dinner? Or maybe one for a party? Here is one that I tried from May's McCall's that you may prepare weeks ahead and store it in your home freezer or cold storage chest of your refrigerator. Try it. Your eater will enjoy it, too

PEPPERMINT ICE-CREAM CAKE

10-inch angel cake (a mix or your own recipe)
6 chocolate peppermint patties
½ cup nuts
1 qt. vanilla ice cream
¼ teaspoon peppermint extract.
Bake and cool your angel cake.

Then cut into 4 layers. This is easy to do when you use a good bread knife or any long serrated knife.

Chop up peppermint patties and nuts. Soften ice cream slightly and stir in candy, nuts and peppermint extract. Spread thick layer of ice-cream between cake layers and rebuild the cake. Cover top of cake with thick frosting of ice cream and keep in freezer until firm. This can be served straight from the freezer to 6 or 8 — no thawing is necessary.

The Eagle or the Oyster?

© Fritz Henle—Courtesy Cities Service Company

Now comes the season of the year when the Red, White and Blue is glorified in oratory throughout the land. Platitudes flow. Washington, Lincoln, Franklin, Patrick Henry, and Jefferson are quoted. For speakers bold enough to break with this tradition, we suggest the examination of a speech written by Merle Thorpe, editor of SERVICE Magazine, for the July issue. Theme—"The Eagle or the Oyster?"

For a people . . .
who elect opportunism rather than opportunity, who dream of security rather than success;
who believe political charity is a virtue;
who mock the frugal and plunder the thrifty;
who adopt the rule that if I don't succeed you are to blame, that what you have is as much mine as yours;
who contend that property is a shameful sign of success;
who whimper that failure is the nobler cause; well-being is wicked; prudence, out-of-date; sacrifice silly—for such a people a fitting emblem is the Oyster.

For a people . . .
who faced nature in the raw, with privation the rule and hardihood a virtue;

who endured defeat, disease and disaster for a hundred years in order to get a foothold on the Eastern Seaboard, the while with one eye on the interior, a no-man's land, a cockpit for settling international rivalries and private grudges, disputed by wild animals and wilder redmen;
who sacrificed thus for a belief in the worth and dignity of the individual;
who believed that economic freedom was as important as political freedom;
who substituted "In God We Trust," for the Old World motto "In Government We Trust";
for a nation built by men who dedicated their lives to achieve the realization of these beliefs,
I give you, fellow citizens—the Eagle!
