Says Cars Must Fire Trucks Here

Zebulon elections will be held mally resolved in regular session last Monday night. Townspeople will elect a Mayor and a Board of Commissioners on this date.

Formal declaration of the election resolution was the only matter concerning which there was the need and amount of water for final action Monday, but receiving consideration were proposals to annex land, to extend local sewer and water lines and to stop cars from following fire trucks

> For the forthcoming election Commissioners named Wade Perry and Mrs. Edna Allman official judges and appointed Z. N. Culpepper registrar.

> Their official acceptance of these positions is pending.

Registration books will remain open two weeks, April 9-22. Sat-

No candidates for local office had filed yesterday afternoon, according to the Zebulon town office, and no candidate had announced his candidacy officially. Approximately seven weeks remain before the municipal election will be held.

urday, April 23, was declared Challenge Day, when new registrants may be officially challenged as to voting eligibility.

Highlighting other discussion was a plan for reducing violations of a Zebulon ordinance (and state law) which prohibits cars from trailing fire trucks to fire-scenes.

Mayor Worth Hinton recommended that offenders be given public warning in advance of efforts to enforce the law which carries a penalty fine of $25 for anyone who does not stop at the sound of a fire-engine siren and await its passing.

Town Clerk Willie B. Hopkins, head of local police and fire departments, said that streams of traffic following trucks to a fire seriously hampers extinguishing work.

According to Mr. Hopkins, stop-(See ELECTION, Page 8)
