Seen and Heard

The Wakelon Bulldogs, much improved over last year's team, lost to a strong Cary eleven, 34-7, Friday night. Coach Hester played all his boys, who showed fine spirit against Cary and Spring Hope. Many Zebulon folks went to Cary last Friday night.

Uncle Ferd was able to get a rise out of most of the workers at Theo. Davis Sons earlier this week—claimed he had a client who had invented instant beer. Just mix with water!

Have you ever noticed how much longer it takes a person to say what he thinks than to tell what he knows?

One Zebulon matron was explaining that she was terribly behind in her ironing since the television set had been broken.

After the talk by a labor organizer at a recent civic club meeting in Zebulon, one club member remarked that the thing that worried him most was the number of unemployed on his payroll.

Here is one of D. D. Chamblee's favorite stories:

A mousy little man was frightened silly of his boss. One day he told a fellow worker he was sick. His friend suggested he go home. "O, I couldn't do that."

"Why not?"
"The boss would fire me."
"Don't be silly. He'll never know. He's not even here today."

Finally the man was convinced and went home. When he got there he looked in the window and saw his boss kissing his wife. So he went all the way back to the office.

"A fine friend you are!", he said to his co-worker. "I nearly got caught."

If you don't believe that ignorance is bliss, observe the ecstatic expression of the man who has just bought a used car.

PRETTY PRINT

When summer sunshine arrives, cotton prints like this one will be there to beat the heat. The dropped waistline of this cotton points up the new "long torso" look. The shoulder-framing collar plays up a sultan and makes the temperature seem degrees cooler. The pretty print is by Alex Colman in Tarnmoor's Everglaze cotton.

A BIG FAMILY

By Theo. B. Davis

Speaking of big families and big people, let me tell you about both in one. To begin with, the family name is Hopkins. The head of it was called by those who knew him least, or most, "Teat" — of course a nick name. At his best, he lacked only four pounds of breaking the scales at 400 pounds. He was every bit a man. He was 6 ft. 7 in. tall, and when fully grown averaged 300 pounds net.

Mrs. Hopkins was no small fry, either. Two more inches would have made her 6 ft. tall and she weighed 180 pounds. She was a Bunn before marriage.

Here are are children's names with ages, height and weight: Wm. I., 50, 6 ft. 1 in., 260 lbs.; Billie K., 40, 6 ft. 6 in., 360 lbs.; Willie B., 38, 6 ft. 5 in., 265 lbs.; Cecil, 35, 6 ft. 3 in., 270 lbs.; Wm. H. (Booger), 31, 6 ft., 240 lbs.; Harvey D., 28, 6 ft. 4 in., 180 lbs.; Kenneth, 26, 6 ft. 5 in., 180 lbs.

The daughters are: Viola who died at the age of twelve. Mrs. M. L. Duke, 40, 5 ft. 11 in., Mrs. W. M. Brannan, 43, 6 ft. 4 in., Mrs. Frank Nowell, 33, 6 ft. 4 in. Mrs. Nowell's name is Viola after her sister who died before Mrs. Nowell's birth.

The total weight of the seven brothers is 1,710 pounds, or an average weight for each of 224½ pounds. The average heights is 6 ft. 3/7 inches.

Four of the brothers are merchants and farmers, one a farmer and two are employees of the town of Zebulon. Six of them live within a half mile of each other. All the family are members of the church except one.

Cotton acreage in cultivation as of July 1 was the smallest since records began in 1909.
