Mrs. A. C. Dawson has entered Rex Hospital. She will undergo an eye operation this week.

Mrs. Susan Alford, who returned from Rex Hospital Thursday, is now at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Berkley Alford.

Miss Joellen Gill and a teacher friend were weekend visitors in the Gill home. Mrs. I. D. Gill, Miss Gill's mother, returned to Stratford with her daughter for a week's visit.

Mrs. Launch Faircloth of Clinton was an overnight guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Talton, Wednesday.

Miss Nancy White of Henderson, sister of Mrs. Franklin Jones, was a visitor in the Jones home last week.

John Zebulon Davis, who underwent an operation for double hernia last week, has returned home and is recuperating splendidly, according to his mother, Mrs. Ferd Davis.

Frances Massey has returned home from Duke Hospital where she underwent a heart operation. According to reports she is doing very well indeed.

Mrs. Garland Godwin was hostess to the Teacher's Bridge Club at her home on Lee Street last Thursday evening.

The house was artistically decorated with arrangements of dried plants and potted flowers.

Club members playing were Mrs. I. D. Gill, Mrs. Howard Beck, Mrs. George Tucker, Mrs. Ben Thomas, Mrs. Helen Gregory, Mrs. Lois Wall, and Miss Mary Lacy Palmer.

Guests were Mrs. Alger Batts, Mrs. Franklin Jones, Mrs. Charles Hester, Mrs. E. D. Rountree and Mrs. Rodney McNabb.

Club high score prize went to Mrs. Louis Wall, and low score prize was awarded to Mrs. George Tucker. Mrs. Rodney McNabb was the recipient of guest high score prize, with Mrs. E. D. Rountree winning the floating prize.

The hostess served strawberry shortcake, party sandwiches, pickles and coffee to her guests and members after the progressions.

Dr. and Mrs. George Tucker were hosts to the Couples Bridge Club Friday night at their home on Sycamore Street.

Enhancing dried and live arrangements decorated the hosts' home.

Members playing were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Finch, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Lowery, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Debnam, and Mr. and Mrs. Carsey Tippet.

High score prize was awarded to the Douglas Finches, low score prize was presented to the Thurman Murrays, and Jack Potter received the floating prize.

During the refreshment hour party sandwiches, pickles, chess pie and coffee were served to the guests by the hosts.

Ferd Davis Speaks To Garden Club

Conservation was the topic of a speech delivered by Ferd Davis, local attorney, at the Carmen Flowers Garden Club which met in the home of Mrs. Riggsby Massey last week.

Mr. Davis said that many fields are improperly terraced, which causes an untold amount of erosion. Land not in cultivation should have cover crops so as to keep the topsoil from washing away.

Davis was a former member of the N. C. Conservation and Development Committee.

During the business session, the club discussed ways in which to earn money to pay for some of the club's indebtednesses.

Refreshments consisted of lime ice, party sandwiches, nuts and cookies.

Mrs. Exum Chamblee was co-hostess.

The February meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Jerry Buffaloe.

News and Observer Features Police Chief

Zebulon's Police Chief, Willie B. Hopkins, was featured in a write-up in yesterday's News and Observer.

The article enumerated the various jobs that he is connected with. For example, he is the town manager, police and fire chief, town clerk and treasurer, building and electrical inspector, water and streets superintendent, and clerk of the Zebulon Recorder's Court.

It also stated that Hopkins' duties do not stop with those chores. He is active in civic affairs, chief of the Rural Fire Department, a flower raiser, and has been a member of the Wake County Fire Commission since it was organized about two years ago.

Hopkins once was described as North Carolina's public official with the most jobs.
