CAMPAIGN MANAGERS CLASH

Cooley and Debnam Wage Vigorous Battle in Hotly Contested Congress Race

Charles W. Daniel, nephew of E. C. Daniel of Zebulon and manager of W. E. Debnam's campaign against Congressman Harold D. Cooley, denied yesterday statements attributed to Tom I. Davis, publicity manager of Mr. Cooley.

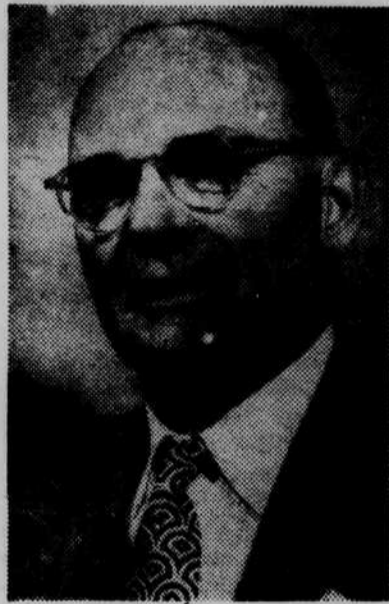

Davis, according to Raleigh reports, declared yesterday that voters should be on the lookout for material of a scandalous nature which would emanate about Thursday of this week from the Debnam headquarters.

"We have no plans for issuing any material except carefully documented statements," Daniel said, "and the press and radio representatives may come into our offices and check every item of campaign material before it is issued, with the exception of the News and Observer."

Daniel added that he felt Jonathan Daniels and the News and Observer are supporting Cooley to such an extent that its reporters should not be permitted to take an advance look at the Debnam material.

Meantime both Cooley and Debnam continued their efforts to wage successful campaigns in what most North Carolina political observers declare is the most hotly contested race in the entire state.

Both candidates have launched personal attacks against their opponent, and both are making widespread use of radio and TV. Each claims the other is being aided by the NAACP.

Col. David L. Hardee

Ferd Davis will introduce the speaker.

The Memorial Day Service is under the sponsorship of the American Legion Auxiliary, Unit 33.

Following the Lord's Prayer in unison, taps will be played.

The Boy and Girl Scouts, Cubs and Brownie Scouts standing in a body will be recognized and honored by the Legion Auxiliary. The Boy Scouts will be in charge of displaying the flags, both at the cemetery for the service and on the streets in the business district.

Dance Recital Had Touch of Broadway In Acts; Costumes

The pupils performing in Mrs. H. C. Wade's dance recital Friday night showed superior training along with great skill and knowledge of the routines.

The costuming was brilliant and lavish, which gave the recital a Broadwayish touch.

At no time did the performance lag. The timing was excellent.

Mrs. Wesley Liles, accompanist, is to be praised for the wonderful job she did in keeping pace with the performers, always with the students, seemingly giving them confidence.

"The Enchanted Forest," a one act ballet, was imaginative and performed with feeling. The dancers, portraying animals of the forest, made the characters come to life with surprising realism.

A performance by David Underhill and Johnnie Sanders literally brought the house down. They gave a rubber-like rendition of a dirty boogie.

At the end of the recital, Mrs. Wade presented awards to her pupils. Those receiving five year awards were: Ann Davis, Janet Griswold, Thurston Debnam and Susanne Beck.

Six year awards went to Patsy Braswell, Debby Massey, Mickey Hinton, Donna Faye Stallings, Cheryl Gay and Georgia Hinton.

Seven and nine year awards went to Joan Baker and Carolyn Hinton, respectively.

It was a delightful and entertaining evening which approximately 600 people enjoyed.

Senior Awarded Four Year College Scholarship

Judith Barham, 17-year-old senior at Corinth-Holder School, has been awarded a four-year college scholarship valued at $7,000 to $10,000 by the State of North Carolina under a program providing such scholarships to certain eligible children of war veterans.

Judith is the daughter of Mrs. Alice Ruth Barham of Route 1, Wendell, and the late Dallis Barham.

Giant Egg, Surprise To Hen, Owner

Mrs. Worth Davis' hens lay oversized eggs. Or at least one has.

Thursday morning when Mrs. Davis went to gather the eggs of her flock, she found a giant egg in one of the nests.

Curious, she measured it. It was four inches long and 5 and 7/8 inches in circumference.

Still curious, she broke it into a bowl and it had three yolks.

Mrs. Davis said this was her first such experience from her flock of Parmentia Reds.
