Dr. D. D. Holt

Methodist to Hear Dr. Holt

Dr. D. D. Holt, Executive Director of the Methodist College Foundation of North Carolina, Inc., will preach at the 11:00 o'clock worship service at the Zebulon Methodist Church, Sunday, June 3rd on the subject, "Christian Faith or Futility." The Rev. Mr. Holt will help the congregation observe Methodist Student Day on this Sunday.

He will speak to the Youth Division at the Church School hour on their choice of college and their vocation.

The General Conference of The Methodist Church calls upon every congregation of Methodists to set aside this Sunday as Methodist Student Day. The focus of this day is Christian education — its contribution to the life and character of youth, and its place in the preservation and propagation of Christianity. On this Sunday Zebulon Methodists join Methodists around the world in a special tribute to their students and to their institutions, and in the acceptance of their responsibility for their continued growth and progress.

Methodist Student Day gives each local church an opportunity to have part in National Methodist Scholarships and Student Loan Funds. Any qualified Methodist student working for a degree in an accredited Methodist college or university is eligible for a scholarship or loan.
