Bridgettes

Mrs. Wilbur Debnam and Mrs. Thurman Murray were hostesses to the Bridgettes Bridge Club and the husbands at the home of Mrs. Murray on Wednesday night, Dec. 11.

Christmas arrangements were used throughout the house and soft carol music played during the evening.

As the guests arrived they were served from the buffet a very delicious Christmas dinner by candlelight. Burning tapers were used on the auxiliary tables.

Playing three progressions were Mr. and Mrs. George Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Barrie Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hales, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hawkins, Mrs. Frank Massey, Mrs. Steve Blackley, Mrs. John Hicks, Wilbur Debnam and Thurman Murray.

High score prize was awarded to Mr. Hawkins, with second high and low going to Mrs. Blackley and Mr. Morgan, respectively.

After bridge the guests played bingo and prizes were presented to the winners of this game.

Refreshments of coffee and lemon cake were served after play.

Victory

When Mrs. A. S. Hinton entertained the Victory Bridge Club recently, gifts were given to every member present.

The party was held in the Hinton residence on East Horton Street, and the Yuletide theme was carried out by the hostess.

The club members present were Mrs. Julian Horton, Mrs. Wilbur Debnam, Mrs. Randolph Hendricks, Mrs. Rodney McNabb, Mrs. Bob Sawyer, Mrs. Willard Gill, Mrs. Donald Stallings and Mrs. Vance Brown.

Mrs. Debnam, winner of high score, took her choice of the gifts, as did Mrs. Stallings, who won low score.

After the three progressions, the hostess served egg nog pie, chicken salad sandwich, nuts and coffee. Christmas candy was on each table during play.

Wednesday Afternoon Club

Mrs. W. C. Campen entertained the Wednesday Afternoon Club and guests at her home on Gannon Avenue last week. The four tables were in progression in the living room and library.

Christmas decorations were used throughout the playing rooms for the occasion.
