FORGET ANYONE?

Our Christmas gifts and remembrances go to friends and relatives who made life richer during the year by their love and friendship. More important, we remember Christ during His birthday season and give thanks to Him as the giver of every good and perfect gift.

But did you forget anyone?

How about your Finer Carolina Committee? Have you shown your appreciation for their work in helping to make your town "Carolina's Finest?"

The most appreciated gift would be your energy and interest in your town's Finer Carolina projects. Like all gifts, it will be returned to you with interest as you help create a happier, more prosperous town for future generations.

Remember your Finer Carolina Committee with your gift of time and talent and help make your town "Carolina's Finest."
