COLD WEATHER

There has been a whole lot of shaking going on in Zebulon during the past few days.

The cause of the shaking was the frigid temperatures that settled upon the town.

According to some of the old timers, Zebulon has felt the lowest temperatures since the birth of the town which is more than fifty years old.

Reports from some of the citizens who avidly kept check on home thermometers during the cold wave revealed the temperatures got down to one and two degrees above zero.

GOOD DEED

Todd then related to Finch that McBride had come to his home to look at a 1956 Ford car. McBride liked the automobile but before he made a decision to buy, he wanted his wife to see it and test drive it.

As security, McBride left the tractor with Todd. He had disconnected the trailer van, Finch reported Todd said, and left it approximately 6 or 8 miles from Durham on the Roxboro road.

After Finch reported to Todd the circumstances of his case with McBride, Todd notified the Durham police department, who took McBride into custody.

Todd's car was returned to him undamaged. So was Finch's tractor-trailer van.

No charges against McBride have been pressed by Finch. It could not be learned whether the Durham police department of Todd would cite McBride to court.

PRAYER DAY

Mayor Wilbur T. Debnam yesterday called upon the citizens of Zebulon to pause for a minute of prayer at noon Friday in observance of World Day of Prayer.

The mayor, in a special proclamation, asks everyone to pause for prayer at high noon on the day and ask for "wisdom and courage to meet and successfully solve the profound problems of our times" and urges attendance at the Zebulon Baptist Church at 10 a.m. Friday.

The union service of the Baptist and Methodist churches will be conducted by the ministers of those churches. An original program has been planned of recorded sacred music and audio-visual aids to a richer prayer experience for community, state, nation and world needs.

The merchants are being requested to close their stores for this hour and the public is urged to attend this service to pray together with other Christians for world conditions.

THEFTS

Young's garage is located on the alley leading from West Sycamore Street to Arendell Avenue behind the Gulf Service Station.

Saturday night, Percy Parrish Grocery and Market was entered and thieves took $40. The money, all silver, was in the cash register. Nothing else was reported missing.

According to Officer Willie B. Hopkins, who investigated, the thieves gained entrance through a window on the north side of the grocery establishment located on Arendell Avenue.

Officer Hopkins said the window was lifted out, the thieves entered, took the money, and left by way of the aperture after replacing the window.

Parrish discovered the theft early Sunday morning when he went to his business. He immediately reported it to the local police department.

According to Mrs. Parrish, the same thieves or others came back to the store Sunday night and tried to gain entrance. She reported that some of the strips of moulding around the window had been damaged when it had been tampered with.

On Tuesday morning, Mr. and Mrs. Parrish discovered a Remington .32 automatic pistol bullet on the floor of the grocery. They reported they assumed the thieves lost the bullet when they were raiding the grocery Saturday night.

Fingerprints were taken, according to Officer Hopkins. At present there are no new leads.

The smokehouse belonging to P. M. Horton of Route 4, Zebulon, was entered last Thursday night and an estimated $70 worth of goods were taken.

Deputy Sheriff Earl Duke, the investigating officer, said Horton's smokehouse was entered some time before 10 o'clock. Horton was not at home when his smokehouse was broken into, but he arrived home around 10, the deputy said.

Two hams weighing between 25 and 30 pounds a piece were taken, a 50-pound stand of lard and a tomthumb of sausage.

No one has been apprehended, but Deputy Duke said several suspects are being watched and questioned.

FREEDOM CRUSADE

"Crusade for Freedom Day," sponsored by the Zebulon American Legion Auxiliary, will be Friday, February 28, 1958, it was announced by Mrs. H. C. Perry, Jr., American Legion Auxiliary president. On this day, local Auxiliary members join ALA units all over the country in collecting Crusade contributions. The local collection center will be in the lobby of the Peoples Bank and Trust Company.

Crusade for Freedom, a non-profit organization, supports the truth broadcasts of Radio Free Europe. Funds collected in the campaign are used in sending news and information to the 70,000,000 captive people in the Soviet-dominated countries, which have no free press or free radio.

"It is an honor for the Zebulon ALA to participate in this effective Crusade against the threat of aggressive Communism," Mrs. Perry said. We are joining American Legion Auxiliary members throughout the country in working for the success of the 1958 drive, which will mean the continuation of Radio Free Europe's vital work."

The national Crusade goal has been set at $10 million, Mrs. Perry said. Truth Dollars contributed by the American People are used in maintaining 29 powerful radio transmitters in Europe. These transmitters are so powerful that they succeed against the frantic jamming efforts of the Soviets. One transmitter is three times more powerful than the largest in the United States, and because it is directional, the transmitter delivers 14 times as much power.

"RFE feels that the situation in East Europe offers a challenge to Americans," Mrs. Perry said. "Freedom is possible for the captive people through their own pressures for eventual independence, and this freedom is possible without actual armed revolt. However, in their struggles for freedom, these people must know all the facts — facts supplied only through RFE."

Radio Free Europe, now in its eighth year, gives the captive countries of East Europe the programs denied them by their Communist governments. In its round-the-clock programming, RFE broadcasts undistorted news, religious and folk music, drama, programs on youth, farming and medicine, and discussions of local, national and international interest.

Navigable Waters

Who owns the land beneath a navigable stream?

In most states, the title to the soil under navigable waters is considered as being in the state. It is regarded as held in trust for the people of the state for the public purposes for which it is adopted.

This does not mean, however, that the Federal Government cannot by the exercise of its constitutional powers control and regulate navigable waters. In respect to the control of navigable waters, the Federal Government has rights that are paramount to the state.

A body of water is navigable if it is of such size and character that it can be used regularly for the purpose of transportation and commerce.

If a stream or other body of water is non-navigable, there may be a private ownership of the soil beneath the water.

A deed of land, bounded in terms by a river or creek not navigable, carries the land to the grantee to the middle or thread of the stream.

Card of Thanks

To you who were so kind and sympathetic during the illness and death of our father and brother, Dwight L. Culpepper, we thank you from the bottom of our humble hearts. May God bless and keep you.

Freedom, Mrs. Perry pointed out. "We who live in freedom have an obligation to those who are denied it," she said, "and Radio Free Europe was founded on the philosophy that men everywhere are entitled to freedom, including the rights of a free radio and free press."

President Eisenhower, in giving the 1958 Crusade his full support, said, "The Crusade for Freedom has long enlisted my support. The stirring events of the last year (in Poland and Hungary) are proof that the spirit of freedom is alive in the hearts of Peoples everywhere and that these people are receptive to the message of Radio Free Europe."
