Bride-Elect Feted

Miss Ann Raybon of Wendell, who will marry Joe Pippin of Zebulon Saturday at the Wendell Baptist Church, was recently feted with a linen shower given by Mrs. Ruric Gill, Sr.

A green and white color scheme was used in refreshments and decorations by the hostess who gave the party at her home on Gannon Avenue.

After an evening of games, the honoree opened her gifts and then the guests were invited into the dining room for refreshments of lime ice, chicken salad sandwiches, nuts, candies and individual bridal ices.

Mrs. Jimmy Batten of Wendell, aunt of the bride-elect, presided at the punch bowl. She was assisted by Mrs. Gill.

The dining table was covered with an imported linen table cloth and was centered with a perfectly gorgeous arrangement of white bridal roses, snapdragons and candytuft. It was flanked with burning cathedral tapers in crystal holders.

Miss Raybon was given a white gardenia corsage upon arrival by the hostess.

Approximately 40 guests attended.

Miss Ann Raybon was honored on Friday night when Mesdames John Davis, Don Mooneyham, D. Whitley, H. Richardson, and Miss Nell Williams entertained at a

Lioness Club Meets

The president of the Raleigh Lioness Club, Mrs. Marion P. Nicholson, will speak to the Zebulon Lionesses Wednesday night, Feb. 26, on Lionism.

Mrs. Nicholson, the wife of a Raleigh dentist, will be introduced to the club members and guests by Mrs. George R. Massey, Jr., program chairman for the month.

All the club members and wives of Lions who are not club members are urged to attend this meeting. Mrs. Nicholson will explain the fundamentals and full aspects of Lionism.

Hostesses for the meeting are Mrs. Horace Gay and Mrs. Frank Massey.
