

Zebulon's Social Calendar This Week

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Brantley spent last week in Winston-Salem visiting their sons and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Brantley and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brantley.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Davis and children of Raleigh were Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Davis.

Mrs. Carsey Tippet and Mrs. Theo. Davis attended the North Carolina Flower Show School at N. C. State College Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Sexton helped their grandson, Charles Davenport, Jr. of Wilson, celebrate his first birthday Wednesday.

Ruric Gill, Jr. returned to his home here Saturday morning after attending a school in Michigan for the past seven weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Utley and daughter of Kinston were overnight guests of Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Lowery.

Mr. and Mrs. Rohe Winchell of Cape Elizabeth, Me., are spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Gill.

W. H. Winstead was rushed to Rex Hospital Tuesday a.m. after suffering a severe heart attack.

Mrs. H. C. Wade, Mrs. Halliburton Yancey, and Mrs. H. K. Baker will leave tomorrow for a week's stay in New York. This is Mrs. Wade's annual buying trip for material for her dance revue.

Mrs. Philip Olive and daughters spent Tuesday in Kittrell with Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Husketh.

Mrs. J. W. Strickland, Sr. is ill at her home on East Vance Street.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Hood, Jr. and son of Rolesville spent Sunday with Mrs. Morris Hood.

PARTY-DANCE

Miss Martha Wall was hostess at a Valentine party and dance on Friday afternoon, Feb. 14, at her home on Wakefield Street. A seasonal motif was used throughout the home to make it festive.

After progressions of bingo, the hostess and guests danced to music furnished by a hi-fi record player. The guests included Misses Donna Faye Stallings, Cheryl Gay, Suzanne Beck, Martha Raye Goodwin and Jean Bunn. Escorts were Johnny Clark, Timmy Kemp, Randy Creech, Guy Massey, Dennis Croom and Frankie Kannon.

Refreshments consisted of decorated cake squares, heart-shaped sandwiches, potato chips, Valentine candies and Pepsi-Colas.

JUNIOR PLAY

"Let Me Out of Here!"

That's the name of the Wakelon Junior Class play to be given Friday (tomorrow) night at 7:45 in the high school auditorium.

You won't want to be let out. You'll want to stay and enjoy every rollicking minute of this farce-comedy.

The price of admission is 50¢ for adults and 25¢ for children.

The play's characters will be portrayed by Brenda Bunn, Pat Murray, Kay Eddins, Martha Driver, Kay Martin, Sidney Richardson, Leary Davis, Larry Page, Robert Pulley and Johnny Bullock.

LEADER

Miss Ruth Temple, a junior at Woman's College, is serving as dormitory discussion leader for the three-day Inter-Faith Forum which closes today on the Greensboro campus.

Miss Temple is the daughter of Joseph Maylon Temple of Rt. 1, Zebulon, and the late Mrs. Temple.

BRIDE GIVEN IN MARRIAGE TO JOEL PIPPIN BY UNCLE

Miss Hilda Ann Raybon, daughter of Mrs. Harold Leslie Raybon and the late Mr. Raybon of Wendell, was married to Herbert Joel Pippin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Alfred Pippin, Jr. of Zebulon on Saturday afternoon at 5:30 p.m. in the Wendell Baptist Church.

The Rev. William H. Vinson, Jr., pastor of the bride, and the Rev. W. Arnold Smith, pastor of the bridegroom, officiated. A double ring ceremony was performed.

The vows were spoken before a background of fern and palms, emphasizing white stock, carnations and bridal roses in the altar arrangements. The church was lighted by candles in seven-branch candelabra.

A program of wedding music was presented prior to the ceremony by Mrs. Leo T. Britt, organist, and Shelton Lewis, soloist, of Wendell. Mr. Lewis sang "To You," "O Perfect Love," and "Prayer Perfect."

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, James E. Raybon, wore a gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin with a fitted bodice outlining a scalloped neckline and long sleeves ending in points over the hands. The full skirt extended into a chapel train and featured a bouffant bustle of taffeta. Her veil of illusion was finger-tip-length and was attached to a tiara of self-material and orange blossoms. She carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis, lilies of the valley, centered with a white orchid.

Miss Jean Raybon, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a green dress with velvet bodice and taffeta skirt. Chiffon streamers were attached to the back of the waistline of a lighter green cummerbund with an overskirt of chiffon. She wore matching mitts and a headdress of velvet and carried a nosegay of pink French carnations centered with a pink camellia.

Robert D. Massey Named Member of Tobacco Associates

A Zebulon banker, Robert D. Massey, has been named one of the members of the Tobacco Associates for 1958. His appointment came February 1.

Massey said Tobacco Associates is an organization for developing and maintaining an export market for tobacco.

He said this country is fastly loosing its foreign markets for exporting tobacco, and Tobacco Associates is seeking ways of keeping these markets so American companies can maintain foreign markets.

Massey is to attend the Associates convention to be held in Raleigh March 4.

The bridesmaids, Misses Jeanne White, Rebecca Byrd and Hazeline Lovelace of Wendell, and Miss Jane Noblin of Raleigh wore similar gowns of rainbow colors with matching mitts and headbands and carried nosegays of rainbow colors centered with pink camellias.

Honorary bridesmaids, wearing ballerina-length gowns of pastel hues, were Misses Jean Knott, Carol Martin, Lucrece Billisoly, Dorothy Hood, and Mrs. Don Mooneyham of Wendell, Misses Faye Winstead, Maxine Raybon, and Mrs. Rex Renfrow, all of Raleigh.

Miss Joan Raybon, sister of the bride, was flower girl, and Jeffrey Pippin, nephew of the bridegroom, was ringbearer.

The bridegroom's father served as best man. Ushers were his brothers, Allen Pippin III of Zebulon, Fred Pippin of Trenton, N. C., and the bride's cousin, Luby Boykin of Selma and Jimmy Batten of Wendell.

Mrs. Raybon chose for her daughter's wedding a mauve costume of lace and pure silk with matching hat and shoes. The bridegroom's mother wore a costume of aqua lace with matching hat and shoes. Both had corsages of pink baby orchids.

After the ceremony, the bridal party received in the vestibule.

Mr. and Mrs. Pippin will reside at their home on Wilson Avenue in Wendell after a wedding trip to the Western part of North Carolina.

For traveling the bride wore an imported blue wool suit trimmed in mink with a matching hat and orchid corsage. She is a graduate of Wendell High School and Hardbargers Business College. She is now employed by Carolina Power and Light Co. in Raleigh.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Wakelon High School and is employed as a printer with Theo. Davis Sons in Zebulon.

MAYOR DESIGNATES FRIDAY CRUSADE FOR FREEDOM DAY

Mrs. H. C. Perry, Jr., president of the Zebulon American Legion Auxiliary, has announced that Friday, Feb. 28, will be "Crusade for Freedom Day" in Zebulon.

Mayor Wilbur T. Debnam has issued the following proclamation in conjunction with day:

Whereas, February has been designated as "Crusade for Freedom Month" throughout America for the purpose of informing the American peoples of the facts about Radio Free Europe and enlisting their active support in this Crusade for Freedom, and

Whereas, the Crusade for Freedom organization is the agency through which millions of Americans support Radio Free Europe by their voluntary contributions, and

Whereas, Radio Free Europe has assumed the responsibility of furnishing an unbiased flow of news and truth to 70 million people in five captive countries behind the Iron Curtain. And it has been established that untold good has resulted from the hourly news, religious, and entertainment broadcast by the fact that the communists have spent millions of dollars in an effort to discontinue these programs.

Now, therefore, I proclaim February 28, 1958, as Crusade for Freedom Day in Zebulon, and call upon all the people of this community to assist the American Legion Auxiliary with their prayer and financial support as they lead our community in this observance.

Members of the local Auxiliary unit will have a booth set up in the Peoples Bank and Trust Company in order to acquaint the people of this community with the importance of the Crusade for Freedom and in order to solicit your contribution so that the great work of Radio Free Europe may continue to send its messages of truth behind the Iron Curtain.

Circle Meeting

The WMS of the Zebulon Baptist Church is going to observe Week of Prayer for home missions March 3 through March 8. The theme of the week will be "Faith Working Through Love."

Monday, 3:30: Mary Lee Ernest Circle meets with the Girls' Auxiliary in charge of the program.

Tuesday, 3:30: Mary Kemp and Vivian Nowell Circles meet.

Wednesday, 8 p.m.: Mary B. Outlaw Circle meets.

Thursday, 2:00: Visitation, and following the visitation the women of the Dora Pitts Circle will convene at 3:30.

Friday, 8 p.m.: Business Women's Circle and Bessie Davis Circle will meet.

Heavy pruning of peach trees this winter may cut yields next summer.

Cards of Thanks

I wish to thank everyone for the flowers, gifts, cards and other expressions of kindness shown me during my recent illness.

Mrs. Roxie Bunn

For the flowers, cards, gifts, and deeds of kindness I received while in the hospital I am truly thankful. Each of you will always be remembered.

Mrs. Harvey Hopkins

I want to express my genuine and sincere thanks for the many kind remembrances sent and given to me by the people of Zebulon—both white and colored—since my accident. All of you have been exceedingly wonderful and I shall be thankful always and remember you with deep affection.

Billy Pippin

MISSISSIPPIAN CALLED TO SERVE HOPKINS CHAPEL BAPTIST CHURCH

The Rev. Virgil McBride, pictured above with his wife, Marie, recently accepted the pastorate of Hopkins Chapel Baptist Church, located on Route 4, Zebulon.

Mrs. McBride is a native Tar Heel, hailing from Jefferson. They have been married since January, 1954.

The new pastor received his bachelor of arts degree from Mississippi College in Clinton, Miss. He is presently attending South-eastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, in addition to his pastoral duties.

Prior to coming to Hopkins church, the Rev. Mr. McBride was pastor in Quitman, Miss., and in Melvin, Ala.

Mrs. McBride attended Mississippi College, and holds a secretarial position with Burlington Mills Corporation near Wake Forest.

The couple resides in Wake Forest.