

Brownie Scouts Cavort On Annual Train Excursion

The Brownie salute is given by these Zebulon Brownies. Picture was made of last year's troop.

Zebulon's Brownie Scouts took their annual train ride from Wake Forest to Raleigh on Tuesday, March 18.

At the Wake Forest depot, the Scouts had complete access to the station. In the Raleigh terminal, a representative of the Seaboard Railroad took the Scouts on a tour of the terminal and explained the functioning of railroading.

The Scouts, their leaders and chaperones dined at Warlick's restaurant in Cameron Villege. They sat together in a body and at the end of the meal they were served dessert of a cup cake decorated with a Brownie. The cup cake was topped with a lighted candle.

The climax of the excursion was a visit to Roger's Horse Farm.

The Brownie Scouts are under the leadership of Mrs. Ray Goodwin and Mrs. Douglas Finch. Chaperoning the train ride were Mrs. M. L. Hagwood, Mrs. Wilbur Debnam, Mrs. Hardin Hinton, Mrs. Charles Creech and Mrs. Thomas Scarborough.

The following Brownies made the trip: Kay Antone, Betsy Baker, Cherrie Bowling, Sue Bunn, Ruby Lee Creech, Ruth Ann Croom, Susan Davis, Mary Candace Debnam, Faye Finch, Martha Goodwin, Phyllis Hagwood, Jane Hinton, Irene Lee, Julia McNabb, Susan Pippin, Hilda Privette, Judy Scarborough, Jennifer Smith, Donna Faye Stallings, Treva Temple, Vicki Temple, Diann Wall, and Vicki Wood. Phyllis Ann Sherron was unable to attend because of an illness.

The following excerpts were taken from letters written by some of the Brownies who took the trip:

The pony farm I enjoyed more than the train ride.—Hilda Privette. I enjoyed the horses.—Betsy Baker. We had a very good time.—Diann Wall. I enjoyed the train ride very, very much.—Irene Lee. It was so exciting to ride on the train.—Donna Faye Stallings.

When the train went over the bridges it looked funny.—Susan Davis. I enjoyed the pony farm, train ride and dinner.—Candace Debnam. It was fun to eat at Warlick's. We had a dessert, too.—Sue Bunn. I liked the supper best because I was hungry and the food tasted good.—Susan Pippin.

The think I liked best was when we went over the bridges because the Brownies screamed.—Jane Hinton. I had a very good time.—Vicki Wood. I went to get some water on the train and just about fell down.—Cherrie Bowling. I liked the dinner best of all. We had fried chicken.—Vicky Temple. I enjoyed the train ride most. I enjoyed going over the bridges.—Ruby Lee Creech.

I enjoyed the train ride best because we went over the bridges.—Faye Finch. We went to Warlick's for dinner. We had hamburgers and for dessert we had ice cream and cake.—Ruth Croom. I enjoyed the train ride best. When we started riding we got up for water and when we did the train began to wobble and our water splashed all over the floor.—Kay Antone.

For dessert we had cake and ice cream. The cake was in honor of Girl Scout Week.—Julia McNabb. I enjoyed dinner at Warlick's most. For dessert we had birthday cake and ice cream. The cake was in honor of Girl Scout Week.—Martha Raye Goodwin. I was not there because I had the chicken pox.—Phyllis Anne Sherron.

room facing the south are made of antique satin in a seafoam color.

The Lioness Club purchased the drape material, sewed them, and presented them to the club.

The ladies' room is painted in two tones, a camellia pink and sea mist green. The men's room is also two tone, sea mist and linden shades of green. Both rooms have white fixtures.

The floor of the entire building is covered with vinyl tile in a neutral shade.

Modern recessed ceiling lighting fixtures grace the building's modern decor.

Lions Ethics Are To Build Up, Not Destroy

To show my faith in the worthiness of my vocation by industrious application to the end that I may merit a reputation for quality of service.

To seek success and to demand all fair remuneration or profit as my just due, but to accept no profit or success at the price of my own self respect lost because of unfair advantage taken or because of questionable acts on my part.

To remember that in building up my business it is not necessary to tear down another's; to be loyal to my clients or customers and true to myself.

Whenever a doubt arises as to the right of ethics of my position or action toward my fellowmen, to resolve such doubt against myself.

To hold friendship as an end and not a means. To hold that true friendship exists not on account of the service performed by one to another, but that true friendship demands nothing but accepts service in the spirit in which it is given.

Always to bear in mind my obligations as a citizen to my nation, my state and my community, and to give to them my unswerving loyalty in word, act and deed. To give them freely of my time, labor and means.

To aid my fellowmen by giving my sympathy to those in distress, my aid to the weak, and my substance to the needy.

To be careful with my criticism and liberal with my praise; to build up and not destroy.

I followed all the instructions but the darn mule blew first."

Prescription Specialists

Neither FAME NOR FORTUNE—

In the annals of pharmacy are countless names of great men whose discoveries have benefited mankind. But for most practicing pharmacists, the reward is neither fame nor fortune. We take pride in faithfully following your physician's instructions in filling your prescriptions and not the least of our compensation is the satisfaction of knowing that our efforts contribute to the protection and restoration of health.
