Miss Jones has also made the Dean's List and Honor Roll for both the fall and winter quarters.

First Dinner Party Quite An Event

A first dinner party is always an exciting affair in the life of a young lady. And it was for Coe Chamblee.

Coe was entertained last Friday night by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Chamblee of North Wakefield Street. The occasion was to honor their daughter on her ninth birthday.

The guests gathered for the affair at 5:30 p.m. Shortly after arriving, the guests were invited into the dining room by the honoree for the dinner party consisting of a meal of chicken salad, french fried potatoes, pickle, carrot strips, hot rolls and jello topped with whipped cream in party designs.

At the conclusion of the dinner, the honoree had set before her a beautiful angel food birthday cake decorated with luscious pink and white mounds of icing. This cake was cut by the honoree and served to her guests.

The dining table was covered with a white antique lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of daffodils in a low crystal bowl. Floating around the base of the daffodil arrangement were pastel-colored camellias.

After the dinner party was over, Coe and her guests, Susan Pippin, Faye Finch, Jennifer Smith, Linda and Donna Kimball, Jane Hinton and Ruth Ann Croom, all dressed in smart party gowns, pulled off their shoes and bopped in their sock feet.

Stork Shower Honors Mrs. Billy Marshall

Mrs. Billy Gene Marshall of Wake Forest and Zebulon was given a stork shower by her mother-in-law, Mrs. Ernestine Marshall, Thursday night, March 20.

The occasion was held in the home of Mrs. Luther B. Saunders, Sr., with Mrs. Ada Mitchell and Mrs. Luther B. Saunders, Jr., co-hostesses.

The Saunders residence was thrown en suite and arrangements of spring flowers were used throughout for decorations.

Mrs. Marshall greeted the guests on arrival and introduced them to the receiving line composed of the mother-to-be and her cousins, Peggy and Annie Mae Keith of Wake Forest.

During the evening stork games of naming the baby, scramble, molding a baby, guessing the number of marbles in a jar and bingo were played. Prizes were awarded to the winners.

After the party games, the guests were invited into the dining room for refreshments. The table was covered with a white cut-work linen cloth and centered with an asymmetrical arrangement of jonquils. Pastel party plates set off a beautiful cut glass punch bowl.

Refreshments consisted of Hawaiian fruit punch, coffee, assorted cookies, pickle, potato chips, pastel mints, nuts and chicken salad sandwiches.

Following the refreshment hour, the guests assembled in the living room for the opening of the beautiful and useful gifts. The living room was beautifully decorated with floral arrangements on the piano, a large stork dressed in pink and blue finery, flanked with narcissus, snapdragons, mums, daffodils, pink and white carnations interspersed with plumosus.

The mother-to-be was dressed in a gray and black dress trimmed in white. She was presented a pink and blue corsage with a miniature stork by her mother-in-law. Mrs. Ernestine Marshall was gowned in a navy blue and white linen dress and wore a pastel carnation corsage. Mrs. Ellen B. Morris, grandmother-in-law of Mrs. Marshall, wore a black dress. Mrs. Morris, who has 16 grandchildren, is eagerly looking forward to her only great-grandchild which is due to arrive early in May.

Mrs. Earnestine Marshall said goodbyes to the eighteen guests who attended. She issued thanks to the persons who were at the shower and the ones who sent gifts.
