Zebulon Brownie Scouts 'Pinned' In Ceremony Held Monday Night

One of the most impressive ceremonies seen here in many a day was given Tuesday night at Zebulon Woman's Club when the Brownie Scouts were honored by the members of the Junior Club.

The Brownies, who had the program, began their meeting as they regularly conduct their meetings. Later, their leader, Mrs. James Alford, presented pins and explained the significance and meaning of the pins and pinning ceremony.

Five members of the Brownie Troop must "flap" on to the Intermediate Troop, but there is no such troop organized in Zebulon. The girls who have risen above Brownie age are Judy Scarborough, Linda Pearce, Susan Davis, Julia McNabb and Donna Price.

One year pins were presented to 12 Brownies. They are Jeanne Alford, Brenda Brantley, Martha Susan Gill, Paula Hudson, Mary Jane Olive, Sandra Smith, Martha Horton, Drucilla Pearce, Frances Barrett Massey, Vicky Gordon, Zahayia Kannon, and Frances Amelia Massey.

Martha Susan Gill was presented a gift because she was the Brownie who sold the most Girl Scout cookies.

Mrs. Alford, who has been the Brownie leader for two years, was presented a tea pot as a gift from the troop.
