Auto Victim

Roy Weathers Killed Sunday

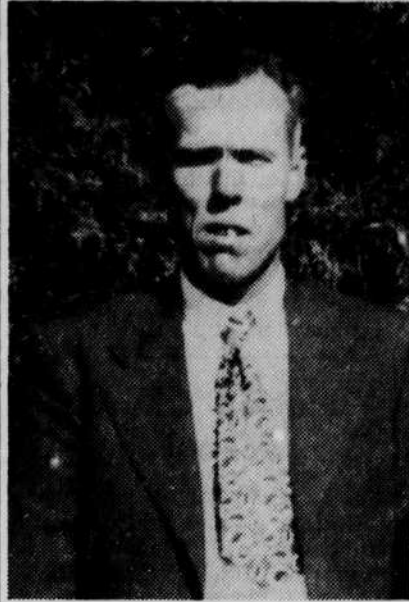

Roy C. Weathers, 46, died at Rex Hospital Sunday night about 12 o'clock from injuries suffered in an automobile accident on U. S. 64 Sunday about 8:30 o'clock.

Highway Patrolman B. K. Tucker reported that Weathers was traveling west on U. S. 64 at an excessive speed. About 400 feet from old Pearl Harbor juke joint on the S-curve Weathers' car ran off the left side of the road, then back across the highway onto the right side, turning over one and one-half times.

The 1956 Ford driven by Weathers was a total loss, according to the patrolman.

Weathers was not thrown from his car but was found hanging by a foot from the door, Patrolman Tucker said witnesses told him.

Surviving are his wife, the former Rosella Hicks, one son, Bobby R. Weathers of the home; one daughter, Mrs. Peggy J. Debnam of Zebulon; four sisters, Mrs. Mammie Watson of Wendell, Route 2, Mrs. Levi Phillips of Route 4, Zebulon, Mrs. Carrie Phillips and Mrs. Maud Pearce of Route 4, Zebulon; two brothers, Morris Weathers of Clayton, Route 1, and Ivan Weathers of Wendell; one half-brother, Loomis Weathers of Raleigh; four half-sisters, Mrs.

Roy Weathers

Elizabeth Holt, Mrs. Jody Jones, Miss Ruth Weathers and Mrs. Edna Earle Edwards, all of Raleigh. Funeral services were held Tuesday at 3 p.m. at Bethany Baptist Church of which he was a member. The Rev. W. Arnold Smith, pastor of Zebulon Baptist Church, officiated, assisted by the Rev. A. D. Parrish.

Five Zebulon Youths Indicted

Lake Glad Scene Of Youth Battles

Five Zebulon youths have been cited to Wendell Recorder's Court for participating in an affray at Lake Glad Friday night, May 20. One of the youths was charged with assault with a deadly weapon.

Also cited to appear in the court were 12 Selma High School youths who were engaged in the affray.

The Zebulon youths were Nathan Phillip Hicks, 22, who was charged with assault with a deadly weapon to wit an automobile; Zebulon W. Chamblee, Jr., 20; Mickey Phillips, 20; Charles Driver, 20; and Billy Steven Etheridge, 21.

The Selma boys were Keith Phillips, Ronald Johnson, Bennie Barnes, Ronald Smith, Melvin Webster, Raven Dale, Phillip Rose Wright, Howard J. Phillips, Tommy Wright, Leamon Franklin Thornton, Bobby Gray Brannan and Tommy Batten. The case was set for last week in Wendell Recorder's Court but was continued at the request of counsel of the Selma youths.

Wendell officers reported that the affray happened at Lake Glad, a recreation area just south of Wendell, early in the evening.

Deputy C. C. Doan said he was called to the scene and when he questioned the youths they told him they got into an argument the Friday night before and were planning to settle it then.

The boys were slow in talking to the officers, Deputy Doan said. He said some of them ran when the officers arrived, leaving their cars.

It was reported that the Selma youths said the group of boys con-

Sanford Front Runner Here In Gubernatorial Race

Terry Sanford, 42 year old attorney from Fayetteville, was the top vote-getter among the four gubernatorial candidates in last Saturday's primary. Sanford, the acknowledged front-runner long before the votes were tallied, received 386 votes to runner-up Professor I. Beverly Lake's 370 votes, in the Zebulon precinct. Malcolm B. Seawell received 68 votes and John Larkins of Trenton 32. A total vote of 856 was cast by Zebulon voters in the local precinct. The gubernatorial tally followed State lines with Sanford, Lake, Seawell and Larkins finishing in that order. With only 66 of the state's 2,094 precincts uncounted Sanford has 254,544 votes, Professor Lake has 171,701 votes while losers Malcolm Seawell tallied 98,806 and Larkins 95,746. A new primary record of votes cast was set with some 50,000 more persons balloting Saturday than in any previous primary.

Henkel Is Lt.-Gov. Choice Locally

C. V. Henkel of Turnersburg bested Cloyd Philpott of Lexington in the lieutenant-governor's race receiving 306 votes to Philpott's 291. David McConnell, a political unknown from Charlotte, polled 179 votes. Philpott led in the State-wide race polling some 53,000 more votes than Henkel. As we go to press Henkel had not decided on whether to ask for a second primary.

Incumbent Justice Clifton L. Moore of Burgaw outran challenger William J. Cocke of Asheville, 493 votes to 195. Charles F.

Gold, commissioner of Insurance licked perennial challenger John Frederick 6-1, as Gold received 637 votes to Frederick's 100.

Sen. Jordan Carries Zebulon

Sen. B. Everett Jordan, an appointee to the U. S. Senate by Gov. Luther Hodges, won his bid for election by defeating handily challenger Addison Hewlett of Wilmington and two other candidates, Robert W. Gregory of Greensboro and Robert M. McIntosh of Charlotte. Jordan received 468 votes to Hewlett's 281 while McIntosh picked up 12 and Gregory 9.

John Jordan Surprises Edwin Pou

State Sen. John Jordan successfully beat back Edwin Pou's bid to return to the State Senate. In a contest that aroused intense interest in the Zebulon community, Jordan polled 498 votes to Edwin Pou's 290. In Wake County the vote stood Jordan 16,173 to Pou's 9,827.

Phil Whitley Leads in House Race

Rep. Philip Whitley, cross town neighbor from Wendell, led the field of six candidates in the race for Wake County's three seats in the House of Representatives. Whitley polled 570 votes, incumbent Brantley Womble 558 votes and Jyles Coggins 330 votes. Archie A. McMillan received 313 votes, incumbent W. C. (Buck) Harris, Jr. 290 votes and the Rev. Grady D. Davis, Shaw University professor, 131 votes.

Despite Whitley's vote appeal in this section, Wake county lost its only representative from outside the city of Raleigh, as Whitley's seat was taken by A. A. McMillan, the top vote-getter among the six candidates. The Wake county lineup will be McMillan, Womble and Harris.

Ben Haigh Beats Johnson

Louis T. Johnson, who did his campaigning for the Wake County Board of Commissioners in his overalls, polled 301 votes in Zebulon to incumbent commissioner Ben Haigh's 375 votes. Throughout Wake County, Haigh received 13,342 to Johnson's 10,293.

Mrs. Adams Ousts Proctor

Mrs. John Q. Adams ousted long-time member of the Wake County Board of Education, S. Tom Proctor, in one of the election's surprises. Mrs. Adams received 494 votes in the local race to Proctor's 242, outpolling the incumbent more than 2 to 1.

Constable Troy Watkins Keeps Post

Troy Watkins, Little River constable, surprised many people with his vote total in Saturday's campaign against three contenders. Watkins outpolled Buck Phillips in the local precinct by four votes, 308 to Phillips' 304. Wendell Perry received 183 votes to G. T. Locklear's 33. In the Mitchell Mill precinct, Locklear led the field of four with 77 votes, Wendell Perry received 51, Watkins 29 and Buck Phillips 10.

The combined vote in the two Little River precincts totaled Wat-

Teenagers Loot Drive-Ins Here And Near Middlesex Recently

Two Zebulon teenagers were given a hearing in Recorder's Court last Wednesday for breaking and entering Forks Drive-In on the night of May 20.

Probable cause was found against Roy West, Jr., 17, of Route 2, Zebulon, and the case was sent to Superior Court.

Bobby Lee Baker, 15, son of Mrs. Eunice Dean of Florida, was placed in the hands of Wake County Juvenile Authorities.

West and Baker were charged with breaking and entering the drive-in east of Zebulon and taking a carton of cigarettes, four cans of beer and a 22 caliber pistol. The estimated valuation of the stolen articles was $25.

The proprietor of the restaurant told investigating officer, Deputy Sheriff S. J. Blackley, the pinball machine was also tampered with and money taken from it. Deputy Blackley said the boys did not admit to taking any money from the machine.

The restaurant was entered after a window in the back of the building had been broken.

West was also involved in another break-in on February 14. He, Chester Arthur Brayboy, Jr., 18, Indian of Route 2, Zebulon, and Charles Edward Barham, 21, of Route 2, Wendell, were charged by Nash Sheriff Glenn Womble with a break-in at Rockside Grill west of Middlesex on February 14.

Sheriff Womble said the three youths tore the screen off a window on the east side of the building and took 12 bottles of beer. Glenn Driver, owner of the place, said the building was ransacked, but nothing else was missing.

Barham, West, William Ellis Denton, 16, of Route 1, Zebulon, and Bobby Lee Baker, who was involved in the Forks Drive-In burglary, were charged with stealing five gallons of gas from a tractor owned by Bill Williams of Middlesex on May 20.

The youths had two .22 pistols and one 16 shot automatic rifle in their possession. One of the pistols came out of the break-in of Forks Drive-In and the other pistol belonged to Barham, Womble stated. Barham shot into the air when four other persons appeared on the scene, according to Womble.

Baker then poured gas across the road and set it on fire to prevent the four from following and identifying his group.

Barham, West, Ellis, Baker, Rudolph Winstead, 18, of Route 2, Zebulon, and Jimmy Lee Winstead, 16, of Route 2, Zebulon, were charged with larceny of five gallons of gas from an O. C. Holland truck near Middlesex on April 22.

In court Monday, May 23, Barham was given eight months on the roads on two counts of larceny. He appealed to Superior Court. On a charge of breaking, entering and larceny, he was bound over to high court.

Brayboy and West were bound over to Superior Court on a breaking, entering and larceny charge. Judgment was suspended on payment of costs on two larceny counts for West.

Denton was tried on two larceny counts, judgment suspended on payment of costs. Rudolph Winstead was tried on one larceny count, judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

Jimmy Lee Winstead and Baker were tried before Juvenile Judge J. N. Sills and placed on probation.

Investigating officers in the Nash case were Womble, Deputy F. D. Brown, and R. E. Gilliam, Middlesex police officer.
