

THE ZEBULON RECORD

Volume XXXV. Number 36.

Zebulon, N. C., Thursday September 29, 1960

Theo. Davis Sons, Publishers

FUTURE HOME OF FUNERAL HOME. This is the future home of Screws and Hudson Funeral Home of Zebulon. Norman Screws reported the N. C. Crowder home on Arendell Avenue has been purchased and is now being remodeled and renovated for occupancy. There will be a 16 by 30 foot chapel which will seat 100 persons. There will be an office, embalming room, and casket showroom. An 80 by 130 foot lot will be available for off-street parking. Moore Hocutt, an employee of the funeral home, and his family will reside in the upstairs of the new home. The formal opening, Screws said, will be held in about three weeks.

Methodist Lay Leader To Teach SS Lessons

Radio Station WETC inaugurates a new public service feature in the interest of the religious life of our community by presenting the "Sunday School Lesson of the Air." The series begins this Sunday, October 2, at 10:05 a.m. and will be taught by E. H. Moser, teacher of the Moser Bible Class of the Zebulon Methodist Church. Moser is an outstanding churchman, is Lay Leader of his church and has represented Zebulon Methodists as delegate to the N. C. Annual Conference of the Methodist Church. Sunday's lesson will be on the topic, "The Greatness of God," first in a series of the International Sunday School Lesson on the theme, "God's Greatness and Man's Worship of Him."

Woman To Open Doll House

Dolls keep the world young. Young and old alike find dolls endearing.

These inanimate objects thrill both men and women of all ages. And Mrs. Charles Flowers is one who knows dolls from one end to the other, inside and out, from the molding of the bodies to the dressing with frilly clothes.

Mrs. Flowers is opening a doll house here soon.

"How did I get interested in dolls. Well, I don't think anyone ever loses interest in dolls. From childhood on up, there's something about dolls that is completely fascinating," she said.

But Mrs. Flowers said her real interest began because of a dear little doll she had during her childhood. She needed some repairs made to this doll with so much sentiment attached.

"And there was no one to repair it," Mrs. Flowers said. "So I began to fiddle around with slight repair work on the doll. Then I branched off on to other dolls which were broken."

She found, however, that she knew almost nothing about the real basic and fundamentals of doll repairing. Then she found this advertisement of a course in the repairing of dolls.

"I took this course," she said. "It was hard, but thoroughly fascinating. I loved every minute I was learning about how to repair dolls."

The course now finished, Mrs. Flowers decided to open her a house here. She has a new 25 by 25 foot building on North Street near her home. This building is

(Continued on Page 8)

On Planning Board

Thomas Monk has been appointed to a three-year term on the Planning Board by the Town Board at its September meeting. Monk replaces R. Wesley Liles, whose term had expired.

NEWS BRIEFS

Revival Scheduled

Revival services at Baptist Tabernacle on Route 1, Wendell, will begin Sunday evening, October 2, and continue through Saturday evening, October 8. Speaker for the week will be the Rev. Odell Pulley, pastor of Magnolia and Baptist Chapel Churches of Fayetteville. Johnny New of Six Forks Baptist Church of Raleigh will serve as choir director throughout the week.

Homecoming

Sunday, October 9, Baptist Tabernacle Church will observe homecoming day. Worship service will begin at 11 a.m. with the pastor, the Rev. W. C. Barham, Jr., delivering the message. Following the worship service, dinner will be served on the grounds. Music will be furnished during the afternoon by visiting church choirs, duets, quartets, and soloists. All former members and pastors are cordially invited to attend this homecoming.

At University Of Florida

Miss Patricia Gayle Privette has enrolled in the University of Florida's Counseling and Guidance Training Institute which began last week.

Sponsored by the U. S. Office of Education, the Institute is a $200,000 project which aims at the basic preparation of secondary teachers in the areas of counseling which are needed in their states.

Miss Privette was chosen as one of 30 secondary educators in the Southeast who will study in the year-long program. Over 300 educators applied for the Institute, which is one of only four such programs in the nation.

WMU Meet

The Woman's Missionary Union of Hopkins Chapel Baptist Church will meet Tuesday night, October 4, at 7:30 in the home of Mrs. L. N. Baker. At this meeting the new officers will begin their year's terms. Mrs. Mary Martin, program chairman, will be in charge of the program, entitled "Message of God's Son."

Eagle Scout Award

Glynn Douglas Seymour of Route 2, Zebulon, will receive his Eagle Scout award in ceremonies to be held Sunday night at 8 o'clock at the Zebulon Baptist Church. He is a member of Scout Troop 525.

Pulpit Committee

The pulpit committee of Zebulon Baptist Church is searching for a preacher. The committee is composed of Raleigh Alford, Ferd Davis, Mrs. F. E. Bunn, Wilbur Debnam, Andrew Jenkins, Dr. L. M. Massey, Mrs. Thurman Murray, Rodney McNabb, Mrs. Elwood Perry and Dr. B. D. Thomas.

School Accreditation

On October 4 the members of the Wakelon and Wendell school faculties and school boards will hold a dinner meeting in the Wakelon cafeteria. Approximately 60 persons from the two communities will be present for a discussion relative to accreditation of the Wakelon and Wendell elementary schools. On Wednesday, October 5, two persons from the

(Continued on Page 5)

Republican Gubernatorial nominee Robert Gavin is shown shaking hands with Mrs. Helen Horton. Smiling, carnationed Gavin made a motorcade tour of Zebulon last Friday.

Republican Candidate Makes Tour Of Town

Robert L. Gavin, of Sanford, Republican nominee for Governor of North Carolina, carried his campaign for the State's top office to Zebulon and Wake County Friday.

The tall, good-looking nominee and his caravan were in Zebulon during mid-afternoon Friday. There was very little response to his appearance here.

He was met by Mayor Ed Hales at the Town Hall where he was supposed to make a short talk. But nobody was there to listen, except the mayor, a reporter, and the nominee's entourage.

He visited up and down the streets but could not stir up any enthusiasm from the local citizenry.

Gavin said he is picking up more strength in the Eastern part of the State. He said his strength is strong west from Durham County.

During his tour of Wake County, he said he found support very favorable. People turned out for his visits to the various Wake County towns, particularly Fuquay-Springs, it was reported. "I have found a lot of support and enthusiasm," Gavin claimed of his tour of Wake County.

Asked about his platform, Gavin said: "I think my ways of thinking are conservative."

Gavin, 44-year-old Sanford lawyer, is a native of Sampson County and a graduate of the University of North Carolina. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Gavin of Sanford. His father served in the State Senate, as U. S. District Attorney for the Middle Judicial District, and was G. O. P. candidate for the U. S. Senate in 1950. The younger Gavin has served as assistant U. S. District Attorney of the Middle Judicial District.

He is married to the former Grace McNeill Blue of Carthage, and is the father of three children: Edwin, 10; Grace Blue, 7; and John, 6. Mrs. Gavin, a very charming and pretty woman, was with her husband Friday. She at one time was a member of Wake-lon School faculty.

As far as could be learned, there are no Gavin leaders here.

KENNEDY GIRLS INSPIRE MEETING

These two young ladies were Kennedy Girls when Senator John F. Kennedy, Democratic nominee for President of the United States, made a speech in Raleigh Saturday evening, September 10. On the left is Miss Ann Wilson Bilisoly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burke Bilisoly of Wendell, and Miss Diana Chamblee, daughter of Mrs. Frederick Chamblee of Zebulon.